

JOHNSON & WALES
UNIVERSITY

PROVIDENCE CAMPUS

Crime Alert

Aggravated Assault

On Friday November 6, 2009 at 12:15 AM a student reported that he was assaulted with a baseball bat behind McNulty Hall near the intersection of Pine and Garnet Streets. A witness to this incident related that the student, who had been drinking prior to the incident, started an exchange of words with the suspect. Consequently, this led to an exchange of shoving and punching. The suspect then went into the trunk of a nearby car, removed a baseball bat, and struck the student in the head, grazing his ear. The suspect then got into the car and fled the scene driving west on Pine Street.

Police were notified

Suspect Description;

The suspect is described as a heavy-set dark skinned male, approximately 20 – 30 years of age, wearing a grey shirt and blue jeans. The suspect's vehicle was described as a Toyota Corolla, either white or light gray in color.

Crime Prevention Tip:

Avoid confrontations with people you do not know. Drinking alcohol can have an adverse impact on your behavior.

Distributed on: November 6, 2009