Johnson & Wales University does not discriminate unlawfully on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, disability, status as a protected veteran, pregnancy or marital status, or any other unlawful basis in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, financial aid, employment, or any other university program or activity. It admits qualified students to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the university. The university undertakes to comply with all federal and state discrimination laws, including, but not limited to, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Johnson & Wales University also does not tolerate harassment of any kind. The university prohibits sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, which are a form of sex discrimination. The following individual has been designated to handle inquiries concerning the application of Title IX and its implementing regulation, in addition to any inquiries regarding the university's nondiscrimination and harassment policies: Title IX Coordinator/Nondiscrimination Coordinator/Section 504 Coordinator, 8 Abbott Park Place, Providence, RI 02903, 401-598-2703. Inquiries concerning the application of the notice of nondiscrimination may also be referred to the Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, Customer Service Team, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC, 20202-1100, 800-421-3481. In compliance with the Higher Education Act, Johnson & Wales University publishes an Annual Security Report and an Annual Fire Safety Report. The Annual Security Report discloses information about campus security and statistics concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, on university-controlled property, and on public property immediately adjacent to campus. The Annual Fire Safety Report discloses information about the campus fire safety policies and procedures and fire statistics for each residence hall. Copies of the reports may be obtained from Admissions or by searching the keywords "annual security report" at jwu.edu. Completion and graduation rate data for specific cohorts of first-time, full-time undergraduate students are available. Please contact financial aid analyst Annette Cataldo at acataldo@jwu.edu for assistance obtaining this information.
