This catalog is an official publication of Johnson & Wales University. As such, it and any other publications or polices provided on JWU’s website are subject to revision at any time. The university reserves the right to add, withdraw or revise any course, program of study, provision or requirement described within the catalog as may be deemed necessary. Occasionally, program requirements will vary by the publication date of the catalog. Requirements stated in the edition published closest to the September enrollment date will take precedence.

Students should read and fully understand the rules, requirements and policies described in this catalog. Additionally, all enrolled students are expected to be familiar with the contents of the Providence Campus Student Handbook. The Providence Campus Student Handbook contains important information regarding academic performance and personal conduct of students as well as university grievance procedures. It also outlines the conditions under which students may be placed on probation or suspension from the university. The Providence Campus Student Handbook (http://catalog.jwu.edu/handbook/providence) is available online. Copies of the Providence Campus Student Handbook and this catalog are also available at Student Academic & Financial Services.

Physician Assistant Program

JWU’s Physician Assistant (PA) Program (http://www.jwu.edu/PA) is in development. The PA Program at JWU is a 24-month, 104-credit, full-time course of study. Upon successful completion, a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies is awarded. The inaugural class begins in summer 2014.

Please note that this 2013–14 graduate catalog does not contain all pertinent information regarding this program. Please see the program’s webpage (http://www.jwu.edu/PA) for relevant program information including 2014–15 tuition and fees, class start and stop dates, class progression requirements, etc. Please note that in the event that content provided on the Physician Assistant webpage is more restrictive or specific than the 2013–14 graduate catalog, the content referenced on the Physician Assistant webpage shall apply.

Accreditation

JWU’s PA program is in development and is currently seeking Accreditation-Provisional from the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant Inc. (ARC-PA), which is the only entry way for new programs into the accreditation process.
It is my honor to welcome you to Johnson & Wales University’s Providence Campus, the oldest and largest of our four campuses. Combined enrollment at our four campuses is approximately 17,000 students from 49 states and 96 countries.

For nearly a century, we’ve been transforming the dreams of career-minded students into reality. From recruiting students who are best prepared for a JWU education, to providing them with a well-rounded, industry-focused curriculum, our strategic objectives embrace quality. Through our academically rigorous, industry-relevant and experientially based programs, we’re developing tomorrow’s industry and civic leaders. In addition, our academic programs, student services and activities, campus facilities and dedication to the community make the Providence Campus comfortable for all types of students from various backgrounds.

Providence is a truly vibrant and cultural city with a small town feel and all the charms of New England. These elements make for an attractive place to live, work and visit. With close proximity to Rhode Island’s famous beaches and larger world-class cities including New York and Boston, Providence is home to six colleges and universities, while the state of Rhode Island is home to five more. I’ve been a part of the JWU community since 1988, and am proud of our commitment to educational excellence that inspires professional success and lifelong personal and intellectual growth.

I invite you to visit and learn more about our dynamic campus (http://www.jwu.edu/providence/visit) and commitment to excellence.

Sincerely,
Mim L. Runey, LP.D.
Providence Campus President and Chief Operating Officer

About JWU

Founded in 1914, Johnson & Wales University is a private, nonprofit, accredited institution with approximately 17,000 graduate and undergraduate students at its four campuses in Providence, R.I.; North Miami, Fla.; Denver, Colo.; and Charlotte, N.C. An innovative educational leader, the university offers degree programs in arts and sciences, business, culinary arts, education, nutrition, hospitality and technology. Its unique model integrates arts and sciences and industry-focused education with work experience and leadership opportunities, inspiring students to achieve professional success and lifelong personal growth. The university's impact is global, with alumni from 152 countries pursuing careers worldwide.

Here’s what makes JWU different.

A Career-focused Education

• Our degree programs are designed to provide you with the knowledge and skills employers have identified as necessary in your field of choice. And you don’t have to wait to build your career skills, as you’ll have the opportunity to take courses in your major in your first year.

• Our faculty, many with industry experience, bring real-life knowledge, hands-on learning and, often, networking opportunities into small classroom settings. You’ll learn industry best practices and train on career-specific tools and software.

• Dedicated faculty advisors and career advisors help you set professional goals and develop an educational plan designed for you to best attain those goals. In addition, specialized workshops help you build your résumé, highlight your skills and develop a portfolio of work to help set you apart.

• You’ll have the opportunity to network with employers who visit campus each year, including career fairs, on-campus interviews and career events geared to your major.

A Full University Experience

• At least one-third of credits in each JWU program are in the arts & sciences to help you develop the critical thinking, communication and analytical skills necessary for long-term career progression.

• JWU offers more than 40 study abroad programs and independent exchanges, all of which include study such as lecture, industry visits and cultural excursions. Study Abroad staff members will help you identify programs that best fit your academic and career goals.

Hands-on Learning

• JWU’s programs provide opportunities for real-world experience, which can include internships, community service learning opportunities and classroom projects with actual companies.

• Students learn by doing. Faculty teach through the practical application of theory in the classroom.

• Our students intern at more than 1,700 sites each year, related to their field of study.

Leadership and Community Opportunities

• Participation in competitions as a member of DECA, BPA, FCCLA and other nationally recognized student organizations help build leadership, career skills and your résumé.

• Community service is integral to our educational philosophy. Our ongoing commitment to community service has repeatedly earned JWU a place on the President’s Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll.

Four Campuses, One University Ahead of its Time

• Four distinct campuses — in Providence, North Miami, Denver and Charlotte — offer a full university experience

• Each is uniquely positioned for you to connect with internships and professional opportunities in the region related to your major.

History of JWU

Johnson & Wales University (JWU) was founded as a business school in 1914 in Providence, R.I. by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. From its origins as a school devoted to business education, JWU has grown to a junior college, to a senior college, and ultimately to university status.

JWU was accredited in 1954 by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS).

In 1963 the State of Rhode Island granted a charter that authorized the university to operate as a nonprofit, degree-granting institution of higher learning and to award associate degrees in accounting, business administration, court reporting and secretarial sciences.

In 1970 the State of Rhode Island approved a revision in the university’s charter allowing it to award baccalaureate degrees as well as associate degrees.

In 1972 and 1973 the university announced the addition of new associate degree programs in the fields of hospitality and culinary arts. This led to additional two- and four-year degree programs in the hospitality and food service fields.

In 1980 the university was granted a legislative charter to replace its previous charter and become authorized to award advanced degrees.

In 1984, a JWU campus was established in Charleston, S.C., which offered a variety of two- and four-year programs in food service, hospitality and travel-tourism. A JWU campus opened in Norfolk, Va., in 1986, offering one- and two-year food service programs.

In 1985, graduate degree programs were introduced at the university. Today the Alan Shawn Feinstein Graduate School offers an MBA degree program, as well as master’s degrees in criminal justice and education. An Ed.D. in Educational Leadership is also offered.

The university officially changed its name to Johnson & Wales University in 1988.

In 1992, JWU opened a campus in North Miami, Florida, offering two- and four-year food service, business and hospitality programs. That year also marked the university’s formal establishment of the College of Business, The Hospitality College, the College of Culinary Arts and the School of Technology. A new emphasis on general studies was introduced with the development of the School of Arts & Sciences.

JWU received regional accreditation from the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) in 1993. In that same year, JWU opened a campus in Vail, Colo., which offered an accelerated associate degree program in culinary arts to college graduates. The year also marked the beginning of a four-year bachelor’s degree offering in culinary arts.

From 1994–2004 JWU offered programs at the Institute of Higher Marketing (IHM) Business School in Göteborg, Sweden. This joint educational agreement allowed business and hospitality students to complete one year of study in Sweden and finish their degrees at one of the university’s domestic campuses.

The university consolidated its institutional accreditation efforts under NEASC on June 30, 2000.

September 2000 marked the opening of the Denver, Colo., campus, which offers two- and four-year degrees in culinary arts, hospitality and business, as well as an accelerated associate degree program originally offered in Vail. In 2000, the Vail Campus merged with the Denver Campus.

In 2002, the university made a strategic decision to consolidate its smaller Charleston and Norfolk campuses to build a campus in Charlotte, N.C. JWU’s Charlotte Campus opened in fall 2004 and offers associate and bachelor’s degree programs in business, culinary arts and hospitality. The Charleston and Norfolk campuses officially closed in May 2006.

Beginning with the 2008–2009 academic year, JWU’s College of Business and The Hospitality College eliminated associate degrees and began offering only bachelor of science degrees that allowed students to customize their education through specializations or concentrations. This decision did not impact the College of Culinary Arts and the School of Technology.

In 2009–2010 JWU recruited, admitted and enrolled the entering class for two online bachelor’s degree programs in food service management.

In fall 2012 the university began offering a degree in counseling psychology, the first bachelor’s degree program offered through the John Hazen White Johnson & Wales University School of Arts & Sciences. This was followed in fall 2013 by the addition of two more arts and sciences degree programs.

Mission and Guiding Principles

Johnson & Wales University … an exceptional education that inspires professional success and lifelong personal and intellectual growth

In support of our mission and recognizing the importance of preserving our unique student-centered culture we will be guided by the following principles:

• Undertake continuous improvement and planning for a sustainable future.
• Foster a teaching-focused university that encourages appropriate scholarship and offers relevant programs that maximize student potential.
• Enrich our academic programs with experiential and work-integrated learning.
• Be cost-conscious in our endeavor to provide an affordable private university education and be a good steward of our resources.
• Embrace diversity for a richly inclusive community.
• Model ethical behavior and local, national and global citizenship.
• Value our faculty and staff by investing in their quality of life and professional development.
• Provide facilities, technology and other resources to meet the needs of students, faculty and staff.

Campus Facilities

Providence, Rhode Island

Since its opening in 1914, Johnson & Wales University’s original campus in Providence, R.I., has grown from a small business school to a large, international university featuring business, culinary arts, hospitality, technology and arts & sciences programs.

For more information about JWU’s Providence Campus (http://www.jwu.edu/providence), contact Admissions 8 Abbott Park Place, Providence, RI 02903 1-800-342-5598 or www.jwu.edu/providence Providence Campus President and Chief Operating Officer Mim L. Runey, L.P.D.

The City

Providence offers big-city sophistication on a welcoming scale, and is often voted one of the country’s best places to live. A historic yet fast-paced city, Providence is located within the highest per capita concentration of colleges and universities in the U.S., so it’s alive with things to do.

The major business, financial and retail districts of the city are all within walking distance of the Downcity Campus, which is convenient for students who want to look for part-time jobs. Also within walking distance are the Providence Performing Arts Center, Providence Public Library, Dunkin’ Donuts Center, Rhode Island Convention Center, Trinity Repertory Company, Providence Place, outdoor skating at the Bank of America City Center, the Rhode Island State House, Rhode Island School of Design, Brown University and places of worship of many major religious denominations. Restaurants for every taste and budget, many owned or operated by JWU alumni, can be found throughout the city as well.

Providence’s unique geographic location — only an hour’s drive from both Boston and Cape Cod, and three hours’ drive from New York City — makes it an inviting place to live. Interstate bus and train stations are within easy reach of the Downcity Campus, and the state airport in Warwick is only about 10 miles to the south. The Rhode Island Public Transit Authority (RIPTA) provides free transportation within Rhode Island to students with a valid ID.

The Campus

The Downcity Campus is anchored by Gaebe Commons, a popular hub of student activity, and surrounded by a variety of shops, restaurants, cafés, music venues and a picturesque riverfront. This campus is home to students in the College of Business, The Hospitality College, the School of Technology and the John Hazen White School of Arts & Sciences.

The nearby Harborside Campus sits on 105 scenic acres along Narragansett Bay, and houses the College of Culinary Arts, the Alan Shawn Feinstein Graduate School, the Wildcat Center (home of the NCAA Division III Wildcats), and the Culinary Arts Museum at JWU. Residential facilities are located throughout Providence and Cranston. JWU provides free shuttle bus service between the campuses and residence halls.

University Library Network
The Johnson & Wales University Library Network is comprised of the libraries of the Providence, R.I.; North Miami, Fla.; Denver, Colo.; and Charlotte, N.C. campuses. An important aspect of the network is the access it provides to resources, services and facilities shared by the Higher Education Library Information Network (HELIN), a consortium of academic, law, and health
Johnson & Wales University Library is also a key partner with the university’s academic programs in the enhancement of student research skills through the delivery of classroom instruction, online information literacy tutorials, Web-based guides customized to the research outcomes of specific courses and curricula, plus personalized reference services delivered to students in person, over the phone, through email, online chat, or SMS. In addition, the library hosts the Scholar’s Archive@JWU (http://scholarsarchive.jwu.edu), an open-access digital commons dedicated to preserving and promoting examples of scholarly or artistic works produced at or belonging to the university.

The main Johnson & Wales University Library facility in Providence occupies the first two floors of The Yena Center at 111 Dorrance Street. It houses the largest of the University Library Network’s book, periodical and audiovisual resource collections, as well as the administrative offices of the university dean of libraries. Other resources include access to numerous online databases, computer workstations, group study rooms, private study carrels, soft seating, an electronic classroom and wireless Internet connectivity throughout the facility. Coffee, tea and light snacks can be purchased from the We Proudly Serve café, generally open according to library hours. During the academic year the library’s hours are Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to midnight; Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and Sunday, 11 a.m. to midnight. Professional reference services are available Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Sunday, 2 to 10 p.m. Note that schedules are subject to change during exam weeks, term breaks, holidays and over the summer.

Library collections and services at the Harborside Campus are located in The Friedman Center at 321 Harborview Boulevard and primarily support the curricula for the College of Culinary Arts, with ancillary resources available for the Alan Shawn Feinstein Graduate School. Like its downcity affiliate, this facility provides access to online databases, computer workstations, group study rooms and wireless Internet connectivity, as well as numerous books, periodicals and audiovisual resources. In addition, this library holds an important collection numbering in the thousands of restaurant menus from around the world. Hours of operation during the academic year are Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to midnight; Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and Sunday, 11 a.m. to midnight. Professional reference services are available Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. and Sunday, 2 to 10 p.m.

Culinary Arts Museum at Johnson & Wales University

Located in The Friedman Center at 315 Harborview Boulevard on the Harborside Campus, the Culinary Arts Museum at JWU is an educational resource for Johnson & Wales University, the community-at-large, food scholars and the food service industry. The Culinary Arts Museum at JWU seeks to both preserve and interpret the broad culinary and hospitality heritage addressed by the university. It is a showcase for the work of students, faculty, alumni and distinguished visiting chefs. Through exhibitions and special events, the museum strives to interpret the evolution of food preparation and presentation, the development of culinary equipment and technology, the diverse menus offered and the places where people dine.

Since its founding in 1989, the Culinary Arts Museum has acquired several substantial donations and individual gifts which are in need of varying degrees of additional documentation and conservation. Starting May 20, 2013, Johnson & Wales University is conducting a comprehensive inventory of the holdings, a collection estimated to be more than 250,000 items. The museum will be closed to the public so that the staff can focus on completing this intensive project in a timely manner. The museum will reopen in September 2014.

Computer Laboratories

Johnson & Wales University has computer labs (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?id=6584) available for students to use email, Internet Explorer, Microsoft Office, jwuLink and more. Additional labs are available to students enrolled in classes that teach specialty software or technology.

Students must have an active JWU email account to access lab computers. Documents can be saved to student-acquired USB drives or documents can be attached to and sent through email. Students cannot save files onto computers in the labs.

Lab locations are:

It is reserved for upperclassmen and some first-year students. There is limited parking available.

Harborside Village
100 Harborside Boulevard, Providence, R.I. (808-6000)

Open to juniors and seniors, Harborside Village is comprised of 12 individual buildings with 12 four-person apartment units in each. Apartments are fully furnished and feature four single, private bedrooms; two private bathrooms; an eat-in kitchen; a common room; and a washer/dryer unit (no card or coin required). An on-site community building houses village resident mailboxes, a function room, a game room, and the community management office. Parking is available through a lottery process. Residents of Harborside Village are required to agree to abide by a community policy agreement as a condition to residing in Harborside Village. There is no meal plan included at this hall. Students can purchase Wildcat Meals from Student Academic & Financial Services.

Centennial House
135 Norwood Avenue, Cranston, R.I.

Centennial House, located a short distance from the Harborside Campus and open to sophomores and juniors, is a nontraditional housing option, different from that of a residence hall. Opening in 2013, Centennial House will house approximately 25 residents in a cooperative-style living environment focused on self-governance and community service.

Campus Dining Services
JWU is in a unique position to provide students with quality food service. Culinary arts and hotel students, as part of their laboratory training, provide much of the food service at the university, under the supervision of professional chef-instructors.

The following dining centers are available for students on a meal plan and their guests: Harbor View Dining Center, Market Place, Red Sauce Pizza & Pasta, Weybosset Street Café, Snowden Dining Center, City Burger, as well as three Starbucks® which are located on the Downcity and Harborside campuses.

All resident students, except for those living in The Cove and Harborside Village, are required to subscribe to the university's Room and Board plan, which provides 15 meals per week. Commuter and all resident students may make use of the campus dining facilities as well by purchasing commuter meals. Meals can be purchased individually or at a discounted price in blocks of 10, 25 or 50 at Campus Dining, located in The Yena Center, 111 Dorrance Street. For more information, contact Campus Dining at 598-1433.

Johnson & Wales University is registered as a private institution with the Minnesota Office of Higher Education pursuant to sections 136A.61 and 136A.71. Registration with the Minnesota Office of Higher Education is not an endorsement of the institution. Credits earned at the institution may not transfer to all other institutions.

The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education, 1122 Lady Street, Suite 300, Columbia, SC 29201 (phone: 803-737-2260), licenses Johnson & Wales University to recruit South Carolina students into its programs. Licensure indicates only that minimum standards have been met; it is not an endorsement or guarantee of quality.

Johnson & Wales University will make available for review to any enrolled or prospective student, upon request, a copy of the documents describing the institution’s accreditation, approval or licensing. This information, as well as contact information for accreditors and state agencies and officials for filing complaints, may be obtained by contacting the Interim Associate Provost for Planning and Institutional Effectiveness, University Provost’s Office, Johnson & Wales University, One Cookson Place, Sixth Floor, Providence RI 02903; or at 401-598-1359.

The Providence Campus and Denver Campus Culinary Nutrition programs are accredited by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND), 120 South Riverside Plaza, Suite 2000, Chicago, IL 60606-6995; phone: 312-899-0040, ext. 5400. The Providence Campus and Denver Campus Didactic Programs in Dietetics (DPD) meet the standards of education set by ACEND.
The Master of Arts in Teaching program is accredited by the Rhode Island Department of Education. Graduates of the M.A.T. may apply for dual certification in one of the following:

- Elementary Education & Elementary Special Education
- Elementary Education & Secondary Special Education
- Business Education & Secondary Special Education
- Food Service Education & Secondary Special Education

The following triple certification requires additional fieldwork and an additional eight weeks of student teaching:

- Elementary Education & Elementary Special Education & Secondary Special Education

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Johnson & Wales University does not discriminate unlawfully on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, disability, status as a protected veteran, pregnancy or marital status or any other unlawful basis in admission to, access to, treatment of, or employment in its programs and activities.

The term “sexual orientation” shall mean and be limited to having an orientation for or being identified as having an orientation for heterosexuality, bisexuality, or homosexuality. This Nondiscrimination Statement shall not be interpreted to prohibit Johnson & Wales University from maintaining separate facilities, sports teams, housing, university-based social fraternities and sororities, and other programs and facilities, for males and females, in accordance with the provisions of Section 16-38-1.1 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as the same may be amended from time to time, or similar laws applicable in other states where the university conducts its operations.

The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding this statement:

Nondiscrimination Coordinator, Johnson & Wales University, 8 Abbott Park Place, Providence, RI 02903, 401-598-2716

Johnson & Wales University
The nondiscrimination coordinator has been designated to carry out the university’s responsibilities under all federal and state discrimination laws, including, but not limited to, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (504), the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

The university’s full Policy regarding Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment, including Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct, is included in the student handbook for each campus (available on the university’s website or upon request to the nondiscrimination coordinator).

Inquiries concerning the application of the nondiscrimination statement may also be referred to the appropriate governmental agencies listed below:

Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, Customer Service Team, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20202-1100, 800-421-3481. This office may refer the matter to a regional Office for Civil Rights.

Please also visit the website or upon request to the nondiscrimination coordinator.

Ed.D. Educational Leadership

(Graduate School)

Doctor of Education (Ed.D.)

JWU’s Ed.D. program has established itself as a prominent preparation program for educational leaders in Southern New England. With its focus on preparing graduates who can think, learn and perform as educational leaders, the program exemplifies the university’s mission of blending academic and work-based learning for career advancement. The doctoral program’s particular focus is on the creation and use of knowledge to impact education practice.

The program emphasizes the preparation of educators who aspire to advance to leadership positions in their respective fields. To do so, these educators must keep abreast of developments and current practices in their fields, keep current in their knowledge, embrace contemporary practices, and perhaps most important, develop and maintain the skills to recognize, evaluate and lead change. The program is designed with distinct specializations in higher education and elementary-secondary education.

Program outcomes are designed so that graduates develop skills in leadership, collaboration, communication, research, critical thinking and problem solving.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

- Structure educational environments in which leadership roles and responsibilities are shared; in which the vision, goals, and work are determined collaboratively; in which evidence overrides opinion, tradition and bias; in which decisions are made in a timely manner and communicated efficiently; and in which others are motivated to do more than they thought they could.
- Communicate appropriately to individuals and groups of various sizes, orally and in writing, in order to teach students, to persuade others, to mediate disputes, and to build convincing cases.
- Utilize existing research, data and appropriate research methodology to define problems, to develop and test alternative solutions, and to choose the best course of action.
- Ask the right questions, think beyond the obvious, develop and test several alternatives, and choose the option that maximizes the results.

CoHort Structure

The cohort structure is essential to the philosophy of the program. Students enter and progress through courses as a group, fostering a team approach to studying and solving educational problems, and interpreting and disseminating the results of such study. An important outcome of the program is to establish, over time, a true network of working scholars who can examine, critique, support and complement another’s educational practice.

Instruction

Faculty use a variety of instructional methods with an emphasis on experiential, collaborative, project-based and interactive techniques. Instructional technology is used synchronously and asynchronously to model what tomorrow’s educational leaders will use in their schools and agencies. Site visits and distinguished visiting professors add to the instructional mix. The weekend offerings also provide for informal faculty/student interaction.

Admission Requirements

To gain admission to the doctoral program, a student must possess a master’s degree in an appropriate field from an accredited institution. The student must have a 3.25 cumulative grade point average for all post-baccalaureate study. To apply, students must

1. Submit a completed application form with all supporting documentation and $200 application fee.
2. Have official transcripts sent directly from institutions attended.
3. Submit three letters of recommendation, two of which should be from professional educators. These letters may be emailed or faxed to 401-598-1286.
4. Submit a written personal statement clearly indicating the reasons for pursuing the degree, the applicant’s scholarship abilities, professional experience, career goals, learning style preferences, and potential contributions to the program. This personal statement may be emailed or faxed to 401-598-1286.
5. Complete the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or a comparable exam and submit official test scores.
6. Once the School of Education receives all the above documentation, applicants will complete a personal interview with a faculty panel.
7. If admitted, a $300 nonrefundable deposit is due within 21 days of receiving the acceptance letter. This money will be credited toward tuition providing the student begins the program in August of that year. If the student does not begin the program the year of acceptance, this deposit will not be refunded.

Students attain degree candidacy after successfully completing all course requirements, passing the comprehensive assessment and attaining approval of a dissertation proposal.

Principal Residency Network (PRN)

As a result of an agreement between JWU and the PRN, upon successful admission to the PRN and the JWU doctoral program, aspiring principals are able to earn credit toward the doctoral degree in Educational Leadership at JWU through successful completion of the PRN program.

Program Requirements

To satisfy program requirements, each student must successfully

1. Complete 60 credit hours (48 hours of coursework and 12 hours of dissertation work, which forms the basis for the dissertation);
2. Maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25;
3. Maintain continuous enrollment, even during dissertation work;
4. Successfully complete the comprehensive assessment;
5. Submit a dissertation proposal within three years of matriculation; and
6. Complete all program requirements within six academic years from the initial date of matriculation.

(Note: For a valid reason, the Educational Leadership program director may extend deadlines.)

In addition, students must have a computer which connects through a high-speed Internet connection. A hybrid method of teaching is utilized in the program that includes characteristics of both synchronous and asynchronous instruction. All communication to students from the university will be conducted through the university email system, and students are required to use and check this account on a regular basis.

A student becomes an official candidate for the degree upon successfully completing all courses and receiving formal approval of the dissertation proposal.

Comprehensive Assessment

The comprehensive assessment is scheduled after coursework is completed. The purpose of this authentic assessment is to determine whether a student has mastered the knowledge and developed the skills required in the Educational Leadership Program competencies, and is thus ready to undertake dissertation work.

Field Project

Upon the completion of coursework, students are required to register for EDUC9905 The Field Research Project. With the guidance of faculty, students will propose a field project. Detailed procedures and expectations for the entire research/defense phase of the program appear in the Dissertation Handbook. This research must focus on a practical and significant problem or issue that can be resolved effectively. The student’s doctoral committee must approve all field projects.

Dissertation

Students are required to submit a dissertation that demonstrates they have acquired the technical and professional competencies associated with educational leadership and the ability to conduct research. The dissertation identifies an issue of concern, reports on the existing body of knowledge, and presents significant research that would advance present information. If the research and dissertation are collaborative, clearly delineated individual components will reflect each student’s substantive contribution to the report and its defense.
The dissertation describes a research project in which students apply best theory and practice. The problem may be drawn from students' workplaces or from some other setting.

In keeping with the mission and conceptual framework of the Educational Leadership Program, students are strongly encouraged to develop dissertations on topics dealing with educational leadership in K-16 and lifelong learning settings.

In order to expedite the process of completing the dissertation, students will receive close, ongoing faculty supervision and shall defend the dissertation within three years of approval of the topic. The computerized links between students and faculty and the small size of the program will help ensure that a high level of supervision takes place. The Dissertation Handbook describes the process in detail.

Students who do not complete the dissertation in the prescribed time will be automatically scheduled for EDUC9011, Dissertation Advisement Continuation. This continuation requires a Dissertation Advisement Fee (p. 55) per semester (fall, spring and summer), which will be assessed each semester until the successful completion of program requirements or an approved leave of absence is granted.

Students scheduling the dissertation defense while enrolled in EDUC9011-Dissertation Advisement will continue to be enrolled and charged appropriate tuition until the grade change process is submitted and complete with Student Academic & Financial Services.

Doctoral Program Courses

Instruction is scheduled in a sequence of six-credit courses addressing significant areas of educational leadership. Students take two courses per semester for four semesters and complete the course work in two years.

Elementary-Secondary Education

Teacher Education

(Graduate School)

Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.)

Conceptual Framework

The M.A.T. and M.Ed. teacher candidate outcomes are designed to develop habits of reflection, responsiveness and persistence in order to relentlessly focus on student access, learning needs, well-being and achievement.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to:

- Be proficient in state and national standards and in professional association requirements for teachers and administrators.
- Have the knowledge, skills and attitudes required to be effective teachers and administrators in a variety of educational environments and at different levels.
- Communicate effectively in both oral and written formats to a variety of audiences.
- Understand human, cultural and societal issues related to education and to practice legal, ethical and socially responsible behavior.

Teacher Education (M.A.T.)

The Master of Arts in Teaching program prepares graduates to apply for certification in one of the following areas:

- Elementary Education and Elementary Special Education
- Business Education and Secondary Special Education
- Food Service Education (certified and noncertified option available)

All students in the M.A.T. program matriculate through the program as a cohort and follow a prescribed sequence of classes.

As a state-approved program leading to certification, Johnson & Wales University’s M.A.T. program complies with the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004.

In keeping with the JWU Core Value of experientially based learning, the M.A.T. program has adopted an essential and unique fieldwork component to the program. Students learn about research-based theories and best practices in university classrooms, and concurrently spend time in K-12 classrooms each week to apply what they have learned in an effort to support and improve K-12 student learning. To accomplish this, teacher candidates observe and plan lessons for small group and whole class instruction, and reflect deeply on their practice. Candidates are required to visit diverse urban and suburban school settings that reflect the grade levels and content areas commensurate with their chosen program concentration.

To further support candidate learning, the M.A.T. program also includes mandatory educational research seminars as part of the graduation requirements. These seminars are scheduled prior to student teaching. Additionally, teacher candidates are required to keep a portfolio of evidence based on meeting the Rhode Island Professional Teacher Standards (RIPTS), the Cultural Competency (CC) standards, and, in the case of those with a special education concentration, the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) standards. Defense of this portfolio is also a program graduation requirement.

Title II Higher Education Act Information

One hundred percent (100%) of the program completers from Johnson & Wales University passed the state test for licensure in 2010–11.

M.A.T. Admission Requirements

Applicants will be reviewed for eligibility* by the Director of Teacher Education and her staff. Eligible applicants will be considered for admission into the M.A.T. degree program after they have completed the following process:

1. Submit a completed application. Applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree.
2. Submit two current letters of reference from individuals who are qualified to assess the applicant’s potential as a teacher.
3. Submit Praxis I scores.

As per Rhode Island Department of Education requirements, certification applicants must score at least 179 in mathematics and reading and 177 in writing, or a composite score of 535 with no test score more than three points less than the cut. In place of Praxis I results, candidates for admission may submit SAT, ACT or GRE scores taken within the past five years. Score requirements vary for noncertification food service candidates. Please contact Graduate Admissions at 401-598-1993 for specific score requirements beyond the Praxis I scores listed here.

4. Submit an official copy of undergraduate transcripts showing a minimum GPA of 2.75 and evidence of content knowledge in areas specific to desired certification.

All coursework in these areas must show a grade of B or above in order for the admissions candidate to avoid having to take additional coursework prior to being granted full admission into the program:

Elementary Education/Elementary and Secondary Special Education
- mathematics (college level)
- literature
- writing/composition
- science (biology, chemistry, physics)
- history (American survey course)
- educational or developmental (child/adolescent) psychology

Secondary Business Education

All of the above, and evidence of the following, either through transcript or significant work experience:

- accounting
- business law
- management
- marketing
- economics
- career development
- personal finance
- information technology
- international business
- keyboarding

Food Service Education
- transcript approval by culinary academic dean

In addition, elementary candidates must show evidence of additional content-related coursework on a Level 2 transcript analysis by the end of the first year of the program. Additional details will be provided at the interview.

5. Complete a successful interview with M.A.T. staff in which he/she will answer questions regarding his/her knowledge of and dispositions toward teaching, complete an on-demand writing sample, and sign a form acknowledging

- the sequence, scope and policies of the teacher education program
- the fact that the university will not award the degree until all program requirements are fully completed and submitted by the candidate, and that the Rhode Island Department of Education makes all decisions regarding the awarding of licensure
- the fact that field work in K-12 classrooms is an integral part of the program and must be completed weekly during school hours for all applicable university courses
- any additional policies/procedures that the program sees fit

6. Have a criminal background check as required by Rhode Island general laws.

* The M.A.T. program’s Food Service education concentration has technical standards (p. 54) in the academic requirements essential to the program. Students with disabilities may contact the Center for Academic Support at 401-598-4660 for further information about these technical standards.

 Students with a grade point average below 2.75 who provide additional transcripts, significant work experience:

- education and teaching
- management, leadership and administration
- mathematics (college level)
- personal finance
- computer literacy (word processing)
- career development
- business law
- accounting
- educational or developmental (child/adolescent) psychology
- history (American survey course)
- science (biology, chemistry, physics)
- writing/composition
- literature
- digital technology

Teacher candidates who are pursuing initial teacher certification in one or more areas by the Rhode Island Department of Education must satisfactorily pass several transition points throughout the program. This is the pathway to qualify to student teach and eventually be recommended for licensure. Key among these transitions is the following:

Assessment Prior to Student Teaching
Student teaching usually occurs during the candidate’s final term(s). Permission to student teach will be granted to candidates who have

- achieved a program GPA of 3.0
- passed the appropriate content exam for the concentration area(s)
- passed a portfolio review with acceptable evidence of significant progress toward meeting the Rhode Island Professional Teacher Standards (RIPTS) as well as standards from the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) and Cultural Competencies (CC)
- Passed a video assessment of readiness for student teaching

Assessment Prior to Recommendation for Program Completion
Having completed the needed transition point that indicates successful completion of all student teaching requirements, the teacher candidate will present his/her completed portfolio to a team of evaluators. This portfolio will contain evidence to prove that the candidate has achieved all program standards to the level appropriate to an emerging teacher.

In addition, the candidate for licensure must have passed all tests required by RIDE for licensure in the area(s) sought, and must have evidence of completing all other requirements for the awarding of the M.A.T. degree.

Upon meeting all of these requirements, the director of the teacher education program shall make the appropriate recommendation regarding the awarding of the M.A.T. degree and state licensure.

While JWU awards the M.A.T. degree, it is important to note that the Rhode Island Department of Education makes the final decision regarding the granting of licensure.

   As per Rhode Island Department of Education requirements, certification applicants must score at least 175 in mathematics and reading and 173 in writing, or a composite score of 523 with no test score more than three points less than the cut. In place of Praxis I results, candidates for admission may submit SAT, ACT or GRE scores taken within the past five years. Score requirements vary for noncertification food service candidates. Please contact Graduate Admissions at 401-598-1993 for specific score requirements beyond the Praxis I scores listed here.
4. Submit an official copy of undergraduate transcripts showing a minimum GPA of 2.75 and evidence of content knowledge in areas specific to desired certification.

All coursework in these areas must show a grade of B or above in order for the admissions candidate to avoid having to take additional course work prior to being granted full admission into the program:

- Elementary Education/Elementary and Secondary Special Education
  - mathematics (college level)
  - literature
  - writing/composition
  - science (biology, chemistry, physics)
  - history (American survey course)
  - educational or developmental (child/adolescent) psychology

- Accounting

All of the above, and evidence of the following, either through transcript or significant work experience:

- Accounting
- Business Law
- Management
- Marketing
- Economics
- Career Development
- Personal Finance
- Information Technology
- International Business
- Keyboarding

Food Service Education
- Transcript approval by culinary academic dean

5. Complete a successful interview with M.A.T. staff in which he/she will answer questions regarding his/her knowledge of and dispositions toward teaching, complete an on-demand writing sample, and sign a form acknowledging

- the sequence, scope and policies of the teacher education program
- the fact that the university will not award the degree until all program requirements are fully completed and submitted by the candidate, and that the Rhode Island Department of Education makes all decisions regarding the awarding of licensure
- the fact that field work in K-12 classrooms is an integral part of the program and must be completed weekly during school hours for all applicable university courses
- any additional policies/procedures that the program sees fit

6. Have a criminal background check as required by Rhode Island general laws.

* The M.A.T. program’s Food Service education concentration has technical standards (p. 54) in the academic requirements essential to the program. Students with disabilities may contact the Center for Academic Support at 401-598-4660 for further information about these technical standards.

 Students with a grade point average below 2.75 who provide additional transcripts, documents or test scores that reflect a stronger academic performance may be considered for admission. A combination of factors are considered for admission, including undergraduate cumulative grade point average and two letters of recommendation.

Certification Requirements

Teacher candidates who are pursuing initial teacher certification in one or more areas by the Rhode Island Department of Education must satisfactorily pass several transition points throughout the program. This is the pathway to qualify to student teach and eventually be recommended for licensure. Key among these transitions is the following:

Assessment Prior to Student Teaching

Student teaching usually occurs during the candidate’s final term(s). Permission to student teach will be granted to candidates who have...
• achieved a program GPA of 3.0
• passed the appropriate content exam for the concentration area(s)
• passed a portfolio review with acceptable evidence of significant progress toward meeting the Rhode Island Professional Teacher Standards (RIPTS) as well as standards from the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) and Cultural Competencies (CC)
• Passed a video assessment of readiness for student teaching

Assessment Prior to Recommendation for Program Completion
Having completed the needed transition point that indicates successful completion of all student teaching requirements, the teacher candidate will present his/her completed portfolio/capstone to a team of evaluators. This portfolio will contain evidence to prove that the candidate has achieved all program standards to the level appropriate to an emerging teacher.

In addition, the candidate for licensure must have passed all tests required by RIDE for licensure in the area(s) sought, and must have evidence of completing all other requirements for the awarding of the M.A.T. degree.

Upon meeting all of these requirements, the director of the teacher education program shall make the appropriate recommendation regarding the awarding of the M.A.T. degree and state licensure.

While JWU awards the M.A.T. degree, it is important to note that the Rhode Island Department of Education makes the final decision regarding the granting of licensure.
MBA
(Graduate School)

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Our MBA program, developed and updated in collaboration with students and successful industry leaders, enables our diverse student body to advance in their professional careers by attaining business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills, while taking into account the ever-changing global business environment.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

• Adapt and innovate to solve management issues in unpredictable environments.
• Critically analyze and question knowledge claims.
• Solve business challenges using strategic theories, models and/or tools.
• Analyze ethical issues and socially responsible business practices in complex organizational situations.
• Analyze management issues with a global perspective.

Graduates will learn executive business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills that will help them to ethically solve problems that occur in the global business environment in culturally sensitive ways.

Our program incorporates critical career-building tools throughout the curriculum, as opposed to other MBA programs where career development is a separate or additional program. Every course, special program and resource focuses on helping students acquire the professional tools they need to advance their careers now and in the future.

Concentrations

Optional concentrations within the MBA program allow students to focus their skills and experiences to demonstrate unique abilities to current and future employers.

• Accounting: Earn the 150 hours of advanced study required to take the Uniform CPA Examination after completing the concentration.
• Hospitality: Gain experience in event operations, strategic marketing and information technology within various sectors of the hospitality and tourism industry.

Admission Requirements

To be considered for acceptance into the program, applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree with a minimum GPA of 2.85. However, applicants with GPAs below 2.85 will be considered based on additional factors: coursework completed beyond the baccalaureate, reputation of undergraduate institution, undergraduate major, and current position’s level of responsibility. To be considered for acceptance into the Enhanced Accounting Track, applicants must possess a minimum GPA of 3.20.

In addition, scores on standardized tests such as GMAT, GRE, ETS test of Business Knowledge and other nationally recognized instruments will be considered. Students who have an undergraduate GPA below 2.85 are strongly encouraged to submit a GMAT or GRE score.

Other factors considered for admission include two letters of recommendation, and a statement of purpose describing why you want to enter the program and how you believe your previous training and experience will help you succeed. The statement should not exceed 500 words and must be submitted in printed form. Both may be emailed to Graduate Admissions at gradschool@admissions.jwu.edu or faxed to 401-598-1286.

MBA Degree Requirements

Students are required to complete a minimum of 54 quarter credits with a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA to complete their MBA program. Prerequisite and foundation courses must be completed prior to registering for core and concentration classes.

Accounting Concentration

The MBA with a concentration in Accounting provides the opportunity for advanced study in management and accounting. Successful completion of this program prepares individuals to pursue high-level careers in accounting and/or management positions both in private industry and in public accounting firms. Building on students’ preexisting foundation in accounting, this advanced program enables students to develop theoretical knowledge while learning how advanced accounting principles and techniques are applied in practice. Research techniques that successful practitioners use are also covered in this program.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

- Adapt and innovate to solve management issues in unpredictable environments.
- Critically analyze and question knowledge claims.
- Solve business challenges using strategic theories, models and/or tools.
- Analyze ethical issues and socially responsible business practices in complex organizational situations.
- Analyze management issues with a global perspective.

Graduates will learn executive business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills that will help them ethically solve problems that occur in the global business environment in culturally sensitive ways.

This program is designed to meet the 150 hours of advanced study requirement that candidates must satisfy to take the Uniform CPA Examination.

Prerequisite and foundation courses should be completed prior to registering for core and concentration classes.

MBA - Accounting Concentration (Enhanced Accounting Track)

(Graduate School)
Master of Business Administration (MBA)
Enhanced Accounting Track

The MBA with a concentration in Accounting also offers the Enhanced Accounting Track which is designed to allow students to obtain an MBA and sit for the Uniform CPA Examination simultaneously. Beginning each fall term, students enter the program as part of a cohort and take classes two evenings per week while they also study for the Uniform CPA Examination.

This track has incorporated a required CPA review as part of the MBA accounting curriculum. The noncredit CPA review is taken concurrently with ACCT6001, ACCT6003 and ACCT6021. Although the CPA review is non-credit bearing, tuition is still applicable. There may also be financial implications (i.e., financial aid and company reimbursement eligibility) and full-time status implications that could impact international students. Students who wish to remain full time must take two 4.5 credit courses even while completing the CPA review.

The CPA review assists graduate students to properly prepare for the Financial Accounting & Reporting, Auditing, Business Environment, and Regulation sections of the Uniform CPA Examination. Students will be exposed to the exam subjects and objectives, the exam schedule, the eligibility and application requirements, application deadlines and the grading system. The CPA review will also expose students to strategy and tactics for successful completion of the multiple choice, simulations and writing on the exam.

This track is designed to meet the 150 hours of advanced study requirement that candidates must satisfy to take the Uniform CPA Examination. Due to the challenging nature of the concentration, students interested in this track must have obtained an undergraduate degree in Accounting with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.2 prior to applying to the concentration.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

- Adapt and innovate to solve management issues in unpredictable environments.
- Critically analyze and question knowledge claims.
- Solve business challenges using strategic theories, models and/or tools.
- Analyze ethical issues and socially responsible business practices in complex organizational situations.
- Analyze management issues with a global perspective.

Graduates will learn executive business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills that will help them ethically solve problems that occur in the global business environment in culturally sensitive ways.

Prerequisites and foundation courses should be completed prior to registering for core and concentration classes and the enhanced track.

MBA - Hospitality Concentration

(Graduate School)

Hospitality Concentration

Johnson & Wales University is the largest educator of hospitality professionals in North America. Economists recognize the global hospitality industry as the largest industry in the world and one of the fastest growing fields for future employment. Through the MBA with a concentration in Hospitality, students acquire the skills and experiences needed to provide exemplary leadership for hospitality-related organizations throughout the world, including Marriott and Compass Group.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

- Adapt and innovate to solve management issues in unpredictable environments.
- Critically analyze and question knowledge claims.
- Solve business challenges using strategic theories, models and/or tools.
- Analyze ethical issues and socially responsible business practices in complex organizational situations.
- Analyze management issues with a global perspective.

Graduates will learn executive business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills that will help them ethically solve problems that occur in the global business environment in culturally sensitive ways.

Graduates in the MBA with a concentration in Hospitality may seek higher-level positions within global organizations that require MBA core curricular skills, as well as strategic planning and management expertise. In the highly competitive hospitality and tourism industry, professionals within the industry are needed to conduct high-level research, develop effective strategies, enhance revenues from strategic channels, and evaluate marketing outcomes. The MBA with a concentration in Hospitality provides the advanced training and knowledge needed to secure employment positions in these growing areas.

Prerequisite and foundation courses should be completed prior to registering for core and concentration courses.

MBA - Information Technology Concentration

(Graduate School)

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The MBA in Information Technology is designed to assist IT professionals in advancing their careers by providing a solid foundation of graduate-level business courses to complement their IT experience and coursework. A major challenge in today’s business environment is how professionally competent practitioners make the transition to managing people and business operations without losing their professional knowledge and expertise.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to:

- Adapt and innovate to solve management issues in unpredictable environments.
- Critically analyze and question knowledge claims.
- Solve business challenges using strategic theories, models and/or tools.
- Analyze ethical issues and socially responsible business practices in complex organizational situations.
- Analyze management issues with a global perspective.

Graduates will learn executive business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills that will help them ethically solve problems that occur in the global business environment in culturally sensitive ways.

This program allows IT professionals to develop both their professional skills (concentration courses) and management skills while learning to think strategically in a complex, cost-competitive, knowledge-based environment.

This MBA concentration will allow successful graduates to excel at both leading and doing. In this challenging employment environment, IT professionals must not only be competent in their fields, but be known as “can-do” leaders. This combination gives our graduates that clear edge to succeed.

MBA One Year Program
(Graduate School)

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The one-year delivery of the MBA program is designed to be an intensive program of study which will allow a student to complete all requirements in 12 months beginning in June.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

• Adapt and innovate to solve management issues in unpredictable environments.
• Critically analyze and question knowledge claims.
• Solve business challenges using strategic theories, models and/or tools.
• Analyze ethical issues and socially responsible business practices in complex organizational situations.
• Analyze management issues with a global perspective.

Graduates will learn executive business competencies, professional leadership, and strategic and creative thinking skills that will help them ethically solve problems that occur in the global business environment in culturally sensitive ways.

All courses are offered during the day at the Harborside Campus. The cohort model is used and admission is in June only. Students with minimal work experience and a desire to complete the program quickly are prime candidates. Students are expected to have completed all foundation courses before the start of classes. Students will be given the opportunity to gain important work setting experience through the development of an action research project.

The one-year program is identical to the traditional program except that courses are pre-determined and students pursue the program as a cohort.

Criminal Justice Management

(Graduate School)

Master of Science (M.S.)

The Criminal Justice Master of Science (M.S.) degree program prepares students to become leaders in the criminal justice fields with the management and leadership skills to move from line-level positions to supervisory and managerial roles. The program will provide students with an academically rigorous learning experience that provides an advanced understanding of criminal justice management as an area of inquiry and as an academic discipline and profession; and the advanced knowledge, skills and abilities required for leadership positions, highly specialized criminal justice positions, pursuit of further education in a doctoral program or law school, and/or teaching positions.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are expected to demonstrate the ability to

• Demonstrate an advanced understanding of the entire American criminal justice system and the legal, theoretical and public policy issues that are relevant to it.

• Articulate an understanding of diversity (including, but not limited to, ethnicity, culture, issues pertaining to gender, religion, and other universals that link all humans), and demonstrate orally and/or in writing, effects of diversity on the lives of people within the context of contemporary issues of justice.

• Demonstrate a strong background in the managerial issues of importance to agency leadership including financial, personnel, project and facilities management.

• Demonstrate the analytical skills to develop policy within a global context and contribute to contemporary workplace practice and reflective analysis.

• Lead a team and collaborate with different criminal justice agencies; a true asset in the competitive market for higher-tier criminal justice positions.

• Exercise the skills to pursue management careers at the federal, state or municipal level, from the corrections, probation and parole fields to security management, intelligence analysis, victim advocacy and social work.

• Appreciate and utilize professional and ethical decision making in the field of criminal justice.

To be considered for acceptance into the program, applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree with a minimum GPA of 2.85. However, applicants with GPAs below 2.85 will be considered based on additional factors: coursework completed beyond the baccalaureate, reputation of undergraduate institution, undergraduate major, and current position’s level of responsibility.

In addition, scores on standardized tests such as GMAT, GRE, ETS test of Business Knowledge and other nationally recognized instruments will be considered. Students who have an undergraduate GPA below 2.85 are strongly encouraged to submit a GMAT or GRE score.

Other factors considered for admission include two letters of recommendation, and a statement of purpose describing why you want to enter the program and how you believe your previous training and experience will help you succeed. The statement should not exceed 500 words and must be submitted in printed form. Both may be emailed to Graduate Admissions at gradschool@admissions.jwu.edu or faxed to 401-598-1286.

Pre-MBA Business/Commerce Major

(Graduate School)

Non-Major

The Pre-MBA program at Johnson & Wales University is designed for outstanding international students who have completed a three-year bachelor's degree in countries where the three-year bachelor's degree is considered the dominant degree in specific areas of study.

The program provides qualified three-year degree holders the opportunity, through a Pre-MBA schedule of undergraduate courses, to equate their education to a four-year U.S. bachelor's degree while fulfilling MBA program prerequisites.

Students successfully completing the Pre-MBA program with a grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0 will enroll directly into their selected MBA program.

Eligibility

The Pre-MBA program is offered only at the Providence Campus.

Applicants to the Pre-MBA program must hold a three-year degree from a recognized undergraduate-level institution with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.

Students with three-year degrees may qualify for the direct entry into graduate school if they can demonstrate the completion of three full years of degree-related work experience after earning the university degree.

Students may also qualify for direct entry if they graduated from a school with a rating of A or better from the National Accreditation Association Council.

Candidates must successfully complete the English as a Second Language program if they do not submit a passing score on the language proficiency test as stated under the English Proficiency Requirement section.

Application Procedure

Please refer to the International Admissions Requirements (http://catalog.jwu.edu/admissions/international) section.

Please note: Students accepted to the Pre-MBA program cannot transfer to the MBA program without first completing all Pre-MBA program requirements.

Scholarships

Students who successfully complete the Pre-MBA program with the required minimum 3.0 GPA needed to enter the MBA program will receive a nonrenewable $2,000 MBA scholarship awarded over the length of the program.

Course Requirements

This program requires that a minimum of 10 undergraduate courses be taken by the student at Johnson & Wales University. The courses generally take place on the Downcity Campus, through the College of Business and the School of Arts & Sciences.

Course substitutions of higher-level subjects and electives in a comparable discipline may be approved based on previous study, but no exemptions will be made which result in a reduced number of required courses. Course registration for Pre-MBA students will be done through Student Academic Services in the Student Services Center, located on the Downcity Campus.

Pre-MBA course descriptions are listed in the undergraduate catalog, which is available online (http://catalog.jwu.edu).

EDUC5004 Introduction to Learning and Teaching in American Society
This initial course in the M.A.T. program provides students with foundational knowledge in learning theory and educational practices in an effort to build a broad understanding of learning and teaching in American schools today. Through course readings and discussion, students examine a variety of issues at the forefront of school improvement efforts including standards-based curriculum, meeting the needs of diverse learners in the classroom, collaboration, formative and summative assessment, and data-driven decision-making. Students examine and utilize the Rhode Island GLEs in a data-driven school improvement project designed to give them a “big-picture” understanding of how teachers, administrators and community members use research, assessment and contextual data to inform practice and support student learning. Students examine the Rhode Island Professional Teacher Standards to support their emerging understanding of the professional, educational, legal and ethical responsibilities to students and their families and spend time in area classrooms doing focused observations and reflections that help them to see the application of the concepts covered in the course.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5012 Teaching Literacy in the Content Area
This course offers prospective teachers the opportunity to develop strategies to enhance content area literacy instruction. Special emphasis is placed on balancing the challenges of developing standards-based curriculum and meeting the needs of a diverse classroom population. Best practices for instruction and assessment are explored and tested through the field placement experience. Based on course content, participants design a content area unit that is implemented during student teaching.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5026 Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling (LETRS) Modules 4, 6
This course is a study of the theory behind current scientifically-based methods of teaching as identified by the National Reading Panel (NPR) and subsequent national and international research efforts. This course includes in-depth study in Vocabulary and Reading Comprehension instruction. Coursework emphasizes the importance of word meanings for reading comprehension and reviews many research-based approaches to vocabulary instruction. Additionally, this course addresses the research based for teaching comprehension, the reasons why students have difficulty with comprehension, and approaches for teaching comprehension.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5036 Writing for Understanding
Based on the principles of backward design made popular by Wiggins and McTighe, this introductory course helps teachers of all grade levels and content areas to design instructional sequences that incorporate both clearly articulated content understanding and standards-based writing skills. It is designed for K-12 teachers who want to implement effective writing teachings and strategies into their classrooms in a thoughtful and manageable way. Participants receive research and brain-based strategies and lessons to teach the qualities of writing in the various genres addressed in the NECAP Assessment. The relationship between the new Common Core Standards and Tri-State Writing GLEs is also explored.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5040 Best Practices in Literacy Instruction
The Balanced Literacy Model is an instructional framework designed to teach phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary/word study, reading fluency and reading comprehension within the context of lesson design observed and implemented in elementary through secondary classrooms. Through course content, instructional modeling and related fieldwork, participants are introduced to strategies to motivate and teach students reading, writing, speaking and listening. This course focuses on English Language Arts as an interdisciplinary and developmental process. Course assignments involve planning for instruction of comprehension and vocabulary strategies as well as introducing word attack skills.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5046 Cognitive Learning Strategies
This course includes “promising practices” that teach skills needed for successful social interactions. These include strategies such as social stories (Gray, 2000), cognitive behavior therapy (Attwood, 2006), and social thinking (Garcia-Winners, 2005) that focus on learning how to consider points of view, emotions, thoughts, beliefs, prior knowledge and intentions of others.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5055 Enhancing Student Learning Through the Arts
This course emphasizes purposes, standards and methods of instruction for teachers in visual art and music. It surveys the historical, philosophical, procedural and curricular processes involved in art and music in order to integrate the arts within the teaching of other disciplines. Through library and Internet research, students integrate instructional lessons with art and music. Emphasis is placed on standards, grade appropriate subject matter, art media, music and technology.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
2.25 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5056 Relationship-based Approach to ASD
This course examines the conceptual foundations for a relationship-based approach to working with individuals who have Autism Spectrum Disorders. In this approach, the focus of treatment is on social relationships rather than on specific behaviors or skills. The approach emphasizes building social connections to establish the foundation for growth and learning. Several theoretical programs are explored that either are based on or incorporate a relationship-based approach, including DIR (Developmental, Individual-difference, Relationship-based approach)/Floortime, Son-Rise, RDI (Relationship Development Intervention), and SCERTS (Social Communication, Emotional Regulation, & Transactional Supports).
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5066 Sensory Processing, Arousal Regulation and Readiness to Learn
This course reviews the neurological foundations involved in processing sensory information and the influence of sensory processing on arousal regulation and readiness to learn. In addition, this course offers a wide variety of strategies to better support individuals with ASD who struggle with sensory processing disorder.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5076 Behavior Analysis and Positive Behavior Supports
This course teaches participants how to gather the necessary information to analyze behaviors and predict the functions that these behaviors serve for the individual. Based on this knowledge, participants develop the tools necessary to plan efficient and effective interventions that are appropriate to the environments in which they will be implemented.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5086 Structured Teaching and Visual Supports
Structured Teaching and Visual Supports is a “promising practice” for individuals with an ASD that targets attention, comprehension, communication and social interactions through the use of “structured teaching” principles that include a highly structured and predictable environment of routines achieved through the management of schedules, physical space, individual learning targets, visual supports and parent-professional collaboration.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours
EDUC5096 Communication and Autism
This course examines communication, starting with an overview of typical communication development, difference in autism speech and language development, assessments of communication, augmentative communication supports, visual supports and the interrelationship between communication and socialization. Students develop the awareness and the necessary skills to conduct informed observations of communication abilities and to identify supports that match the individuals learning style. Students learn strategies to collaborate with teachers, family members and related professionals to increase communication amongst stakeholders. Using a combination of observation, in vivo practice sessions, lecture and project-based learning, students apply their knowledge of communication supports across the autism spectrum.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5111 Strategies for Teaching Food Service Mathematics
This course is designed to critically analyze curriculum and the process of teaching and learning food service mathematics. It examines current level three research in best practices for delivering mathematics instruction. Value is placed on thinking, reasoning, communicating mathematically and making connections among mathematical ideas and real-world situations. Standards that will be addressed include the Rhode Island Professional Teacher Standards (RIPTS), the NCTM Principles and Standards of School Mathematics (PSSM 2000), and Common Core State Standards (CCSS). Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5154 Orton-Gillingham Certified Level I
This course explores the history and structure of the English language as it relates to the ability to teach the phonology and morphology, as well as semantics and syntax. Students will apply the knowledge gained in the lecture component of the course in one-on-one O.G. sessions with primary or secondary students. Prerequisite(s): Orton Gillingham Associates certification, bachelor's degree or prior approval of instructor. (HY)
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5265 Organization and Administration of Special Education
This course is designed to provide participants with an overview of national, state and local policy relative to the education of children with disabilities. Examination and discussion focus on federal statutes and regulations, state laws and rules and significant litigation that have shaped and continue to guide the implementation of programs and services for children with disabilities. Education policy, program decisions and their influence on the education of children with disabilities are reviewed. Participants “problem-solve” by addressing these elements in terms of their implications for local school and school district decision-making. Topics include the context for educating children with disabilities, the student outcomes and results expected, service delivery options and organizing the resources needed to accomplish the task.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5266 Supervision of Personnel
This course is designed for students who are preparing for supervisory roles and focuses on the objectives, functions and evaluations of the supervisory and evaluation experience within multicultural educational institutions. This course emphasizes the importance of effective and enlightened instructional and personnel supervision at all levels of a district, inclusive of the use of required skills specific to special education. In addition, the study of school law is included to ensure access and equity in all educational endeavors. The theory and principles of supervisory practice is examined as they support, extend and deepen aspiring educational leaders’ efforts to improve instruction and instructional programs, and create dynamic and democratic communities of learners. Students are engaged in 22 hours of field work in related supervision activities.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5260 Introduction to Educational Technologies
This course examines the shifting digital learning literacy demands of 21st century and how these demands are changing the ways that teachers/trainers educate their students/clients. It investigates digital tools with an eye toward their use in creating authentic, powerful learning opportunities for students/clients. Participants learn how to use selected tools to enhance the learning of their students/clients, and use their own classroom/training sites as a clinical laboratory for experiential learning and application of new skills. Participants are required to report back to the group weekly to share ways in which they have used these tools to improve teaching and learning.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours
EDUC5402 Strategies for Teaching Science
This course is designed to increase the students’ science content knowledge, critically analyze curriculum, and experience best practices in teaching and learning science in elementary and middle school grades with a technology component. Current theories regarding instructional strategies for science, the application of language arts skills in the content area, and uses of various technologies in the classroom are integrated into the course. Emphasis is placed on a student-centered approach to science inquiry that maintains the rigor necessary to prepare students with the habits of mind required to meet the demands of a highly scientifically literate society. Field experiences play a vital role in this course.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5515 Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling
This course is a study of the theory behind current scientifically-based methods of teaching as identified by the National Reading Panel (NPR) and subsequent national and international research efforts. It includes the study of phonology, morphology and orthography, crucial language systems upon which proficient reading depends. Focus is placed on English language structure as it is processed during decoding and encoding. Insight into these principles is used to develop instructional materials for the instruction of a diverse group of students, including those with disabilities, students from culturally and linguistically diverse populations, and high-achieving students.
This course is taught off campus.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5525 Building Respectful Classroom Communities
The goal of this intensive teacher-training course is to better prepare existing teachers to meet the challenges of working with high-risk urban students with a myriad of academic, social, emotional and behavioral needs. The course focuses on responsive, empowering teacher language, as well as daily strategies, rules and rituals that assist in creating and maintaining a positive, safe learning environment where academics can be the focus, with a strong emphasis on social and emotional learning. This course is taught off campus.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5575 Digital Collaborative Tools
This course provides an understanding of the shifting learning literacies that the 21st century demands and how they will change the way teachers facilitate and educate their digital learners. The course examines and emphasizes Web 2.0 tools such as wikis, blogs, podcasts and other powerful tools of the Web that create authentic learning. Through in-class individual hands-on instruction and team-based experiential learning, students learn and use these innovative and collaborative tools by constructing ways to incorporate these unique technologies into their classrooms to create purposeful curriculum design.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
2.25 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC5580 Educational Psychology
This course develops a fundamental understanding of the theories and principles of psychology as applied to teaching and learning and the implications for curriculum planning. The students integrate and apply theories and principles of child and adolescent development, learning, memory, motivation, individual differences, instruction, and measurement and evaluation.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
2.25 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC6008 Methods of Teaching Business
This course offers aspiring teachers the opportunity to prepare their students to be responsible citizens capable of making astute economic decisions that will benefit their personal and professional lives. Prospective teachers become facilitators of learning specifically by planning, developing, delivering and evaluating basic business curriculum related to personal finance, computer technology, economics and marketing. Multiple instructional strategies are considered for (1) planning, designing, delivering and evaluating lessons; (2) creating an environment in the classroom conducive to learning; (3) treating all students equitably in the classroom; (4) connecting the Grade Span Expectations to the Business curriculum; (5) developing a professional philosophy of education; and (6) participating in professional development. Readings on current trends in education augment class discussions.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
2.25 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC6020 Curriculum Development for Culinary Programs
This course helps students develop a standards-based culinary curriculum. Current theories and standards are analyzed regarding the curriculum design process. Students identify standards, formative and summative assessment measures, instructional strategies and resources for student achievement.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC6025 Capstone Project: Culinary Education
This capstone course affords students the opportunity to apply theory learned throughout the program and conduct new research in order to design a curriculum for a secondary and/or postsecondary culinary arts program. The participant engages in an action research study that results in identifying best practices in culinary education and recommendations for curriculum improvement.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
9 Quarter Credit Hours

EDUC6027 Methods of Teaching Culinary Arts
This methods course is designed to provide knowledge of the principles and techniques of instruction as it pertains to the experiential classroom of culinary arts. Emphasis is on long-range and daily lesson plans, methods, tools and skills of instruction, and the organization of instructional materials and supplementary materials in order to accommodate the special needs and individual differences among students in today’s diversely populated, secondary school classrooms. The importance of staying abreast of professional practices, trends and research is stressed via an outside reading list.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours
EDUC6050 Student Teaching in Culinary/Pastry Arts
Students in this course spend 12 weeks in a teaching situation at a public secondary school site under the direct supervision of a food service cooperating teacher. Student teachers are responsible for planning lessons and shall demonstrate their ability to teach and work effectively. During the course, students are required to demonstrate their understanding of and competence in the RIBTS and Content Standards by producing a student teacher’s portfolio. Students participate in several seminars directly related to their student teaching experience.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad

EDUC7030 Teaching and Learning Higher Education
This course prepares students to lead reform initiatives in teaching and learning in higher education settings. The course focuses on the relationships among curriculum, instruction, and assessment. Students are given opportunities to examine key issues and problems impacting teaching and learning in higher education. Students engage in an action research project that is centered on typical problems in teaching and learning confronting educational leaders.
Offered at Grad
6 Semester Credits
EDUC7031 Organizational Theory and Behavior in Higher Education
This course focuses on higher education organizational theory, behavior, and culture, with special emphasis on how leaders can effect change by developing a dynamic, holistic, systems approach to understanding and facilitating the work of the organization. Using re-framing as a lens to view organizations, the course examines the complex relationships among individuals and groups, as well as team building, decision-making, conflict resolution, strategy and policy development, and administrative management styles. Organizational development and change theory are explored with regard to traditional and evolving patterns for organizing colleges to effectively meet current and future demands.
Offered at Grad
6 Semester Credits

EDUC7032 Organizational Theory, Behavior, and Development in Elementary-Secondary Education
This course focuses on the organizational theory, behavior and culture with special emphasis on how elementary-secondary leaders can affect change by developing a systemic approach to understanding and facilitating the work of the organization. Emphasis is placed on understanding and facilitating the work of organizations. Emphasis is also placed on understanding the “frameworks” (political, symbolic, human resources and structural) that affect organizations. In understanding the impact of the “frameworks”, the intent is to provide the skills for leaders to re-frame existing organizations and review organizations from a different “lens” or perspective. The course examines the complex relationships among individuals and groups as well as team building, decision-making, conflict resolution, strategy, policy development, and administrative and management styles.

EDUC8007 Research II: Research Methods for Elementary-Secondary Education Leaders
This course prepares students to design and conduct qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods research, including program evaluations, addressed to significant educational issues and challenges in elementary-secondary settings. Students work in these settings to create research designs, collect and analyze qualitative and quantitative data, and derive findings and conclusions.
Prerequisite(s): EDUC7007.
Offered at Grad
6 Semester Credits

EDUC8008 Research II: Research Methods for Higher Education Leaders
This course prepares students to design and conduct qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods research to address significant educational issues and challenges in higher education settings. This course focuses on direct application of designs and methods in preparation for the dissertation process. Students develop initial qualitative and quantitative data collection methods and complete pilot tests for their proposed study. Students are also exposed to publishing and conference presentation opportunities for their particular discipline and topic.
Prerequisite(s): EDUC7006.
Offered at Grad
6 Semester Credits

EDUC8016 Resource Planning and Management in Higher Education
This course assists doctoral students in developing the knowledge, skills and dispositions needed to plan and execute sound approaches to resource decision-making and use. Authentic fiscal issues and practices in higher education are identified and potential solutions and needed changes explored. Students investigate the entire spectrum of revenues, rationales and justifications for budget requests and resource allocations, and design appropriate practices for resource management. Traditional and evolving funding sources are examined, and grant-writing strategies explored. The fusion of planning, budgeting and technology to produce better resource allocations, and oversight of those allocations, is emphasized.
Prerequisite(s): 24 semester credit hours of doctoral study.
Offered at Grad

EVNT6000 Event Leadership and Planning
This advanced course enables students to gain competence in the specific techniques used by professional event leaders to lead events through the phases of research, design, planning, coordination and evaluation. Students assess the marketing opportunities: legal, ethical and risk management issues, and technological advances within the profession.
Prerequisite(s): FISV5600 and completion of required prerequisite and foundation courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

EVNT6020 Event Operations and Risk Management
This advanced course enables students to gain competence in the specific risk management, risk operations, risk assessment, planning and evaluative techniques used by professional event leaders to mitigate risk proactively. Students gain knowledge in risk management, risk operations, risk assessment, avoidance, planning and control of risk associated with events, and explore methods for eliminating, reducing and transferring these risks to improve the successful outcomes of their events. Students gain proficiency in assessing risk operations, understanding the liabilities of conducting an event, contract law, contractual responsibilities in planning and implementing an event, either for one’s own organization, or acting as an agent on a fee-for-service basis.
Prerequisite(s): Completion of required prerequisite and foundation courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

FISV5000 Corporate Financial Accounting
This course is designed for Graduate School students who do not have an undergraduate degree in business. It provides instruction in financial and managerial accounting principles; business entities; the accounting equation; preparation of financial statements using the adjusted trial balance; horizontal, vertical, and common-sized financial statements analysis; financial ratios analysis; cash budgeting; the examination of cost behavior, and break even analysis. The primary objective of the course is to prepare the graduate student for advanced coverage of topics in the financial management course.
Offered at Grad 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

FISV5526 Financial Reporting and Control
This course offers students a practical approach to understanding financial reporting. Students learn the requirements of generally accepted accounting principles in financial statement preparations by researching and analyzing publicly traded companies. Emphasis is placed on how the financial statements translate into stock prices and how they can be used as a barometer of a company’s financial position. Students explore how companies in trouble can benefit from implanted controls, via the financial reporting process, to ensure earlier and better insight in making difficult decisions.
Prerequisite(s): FISV5600. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

FISV5600 Financial Management
This course provides the student with sufficient analytical skills to interpret and act upon financial data and information that lead to sound financial decisions for business organizations. Topics include the time value of money, capital budgeting methods, financial statement analysis, breakeven analysis, short and long term financing methods, and topics in international financial management. Contemporary financial management techniques are discussed throughout the course.
Prerequisite(s): Completion of foundation courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

FISV6020 Tax Planning for the Financial Manager
This course offers students a practical approach to understanding the complexity of the U.S. tax system. Discussion centers on the tax laws as a means of fiscal policy. The student explores how to plan to utilize the tax system for financing company needs. The course is designed to teach students how to research and understand the initiation of tax law, how this is brought through the Treasury Department, and how judicial interpretation affects the understanding of tax issues. Emphasis is on effective planning in the overall financial scheme.
Prerequisite(s): FISV5600.
Offered at Grad 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

FISV6050 Strategic Financial Planning
This course offers students a practical approach to understanding the budgeting process. Students are exposed to the complete cycle of budgeting, from understanding the strategic plan that initiates the budget process to auditing the results. Students see the interrelating components of the operational budget to the capital budget and how these build to the cash flow budget. Students are able to translate the cash flow necessary to support the strategic plan to financing requirements that need to be met by banking or other sources. Students apply research techniques in coordinating a comprehensive strategic plan with a particular industry.
Prerequisite(s): FISV5526.
Offered at Grad 4.5 Quarter Credit Hours
FISV6056 Fundamentals of Investment and Portfolio Management
This course introduces students to the fundamentals of investment and portfolio management. It focuses the student’s attention on the impact that asset diversification has on expected portfolio outcomes. Students should complete the course with a thorough understanding of most investment vehicles and how they can be used in varying weights to influence the short and long-term returns of an investment portfolio. Students apply the basic tenets of FISV5600 by applying ratio analysis in the course of investment decision-making. Upon completion of the course, students are better prepared to make prudent investment decisions in both their professional careers as well as their own personal financial planning.
Prerequisite(s): FISV5600.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

FISV6060 Managing Capital Markets
This course offers students a practical approach to understanding the best way to finance a firm for the needs outlined by management. Students learn how to manage a banking relationship and research various methods to finance a company’s strategic plan. Discussions center on companies that expand and those that downsize their businesses.
Prerequisite(s): FISV5600.
Offered at Grad

IBUS5511 Global Economic Environments
This course presents various theories and practices of globalization, international trade, importing, exporting, finance and international risk assessment. Topics examined include the theory of openness, absolute and comparative advantage, tariffs, non-tariff barriers to trade, importing into the United States, regional trade agreements, trade policies for developing nations, and the effect of public policy on international trade. In addition, students gain insight into the ethical, international and multicultural dimensions of organizational behavior. The effective use of the Internet and its various international trade sources is an integral part of this course.
Prerequisite(s): ECON5000, completion of foundation courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

IBUS6020 International Business Negotiations
This course is designed to provide students with the theory and practice of international business negotiation that would allow them to conduct talks successfully in a variety of international settings. It exposes students as managers to a broad spectrum of business negotiation issues across the board and assists them to feel comfortable in an interactive international trade environment. A basic assumption of the course is that the contemporary manager handling business internationally is required to have both analytic and interpersonal skills to conduct full-fledged negotiation effectively and successfully. This course is designed to give students the opportunity to develop these types of negotiation skills through a learning experience. Every class deals with an aspect of negotiation in depth, explains various key notions, discusses home-assigned readings, and investigates important issues that have been brought up with regard to the way prospective managers handle negotiation.
Prerequisite(s): RSCH5500, MGMT5800.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

IBUS6026 Emerging Economics of BRIC (Brazil, Russia, India, China)
Recently, emerging markets of four countries Brazil, Russia, India, and China have become known as BRIC, a term used to embrace newly emerging economies with rapid economic and financial growth. They have attracted the attention of academia but most of all corporate quarters. This course is designed to investigate the performance of BRIC companies operating both internationally and domestically. Because emerging economies pose a different array of challenges compared to the ones commonly found in the developed markets, new strategies and tactics need to be developed in response to economic, social and cultural institutions of the BRIC countries. The course is beneficial to students who are interested in understanding the interaction between local firms in the emerging markets and their foreign counterparts.
Prerequisite(s): IBUS5511, MGMT5800.
Offered at Grad

ITEC6514 Decision Support Systems
This course focuses on design, development and implementation of effective systems for meeting information needs of management decision-makers. The course explains both model-based and data-based decision support systems and their use by business managers. Decision Support Systems (DSS) are addressed at three levels: general theory, implications for DSS design, and code/rule-based development. Data mining, developing business intelligence with analytics and modeling are reviewed. Data warehousing and DSS across cultures associated with transnational systems are also addressed.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

ITEC6524 Enterprise Data Management
This course focuses on the problems and issues surrounding distributed data management integration and the concepts of grid computing. Also examined are management and administration of very large and/or distributed database architectures within national or international companies or organizations. Topics also include the fundamentals of business functions as they relate to enterprise data management.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

ITEC6534 Strategic Management of Information Technology
Strategic IT management is a multi-dimensional construct that characterizes the extent to which organizations plan, implement, and use information systems in a competitive manner. This course examines four dimensions: IT environment scanning; IT planning and control; IT acquisition and implementation; and strategic use of IT (use of IT to increase your firm’s profitability). Special attention is given to the IT/IS alignment within the organization. Professional abilities and attributes of successful IT managers: knowledge, systems, strategies, and technology are also emphasized.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

ITEC6544 Current Trends and Issues in Information Technology
This course provides current trend, trends, and issues in the field of information technology. Global topics of infrastructure, hardware, software, security, quality control are examined. Social and cultural impacts of technology, virtual digital communication, data mining and government regulations are also considered. E-business, planning, budgeting and electronic commerce within the context of information management are also assessed. Students develop an area of interest and formulate a research proposal for further study in IT management.

LAW6000 Law for Accountants
This course offers the student a practical approach to understanding the complexity in the area of law and the implications upon the accounting profession. Discussion centers on the study of business organizations, contracts, bankruptcy, wills and estates, antitrust, employment law and products liability. Emphasis is placed on the legal liability of the accountant and professional responsibility. Students gain an understanding that the accounting profession is a self-regulating industry whereby theory and reporting requirements are initiated, developed, implemented and enforced by the accounting profession.
Prerequisite(s): LAW3010, completion of required accounting prerequisite and foundation courses.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MATH5000 Quantitative Business Methods
This course uses a problem-based, case study and personal computer approach to solving business and organizational problems. Special emphasis is given to making well-informed decisions with numerical data. The aim of the course is to show the student by example that numerical and statistical analysis clarifies and sheds light on complex situations. During analyses, students draw meaningful and useful conclusions and learn much about a problem. Drawing existing models, theories and examples presented in class, students use the power of the personal computer for calculations.
Prerequisite(s): MATH1002.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT5000 Foundations of Business Administration
This course emphasizes the main functions of management, planning, controlling, organizing staffing and directing. In addition, international market entry strategies and the challenges of doing business in a multicultural environment are examined. Economic, political and social risk factors as they relate to management in a global economy are reviewed. Finance and investment concepts are explored as a way to start and nurture businesses. This survey course presents the ongoing role of technology in the ever-growing interrelated global environment. The student integrates these management functions with the basic foundations of marketing including, but not limited to, creating customer value, marketing communications and branding.

MGMT5800 Effective Leadership
This course reviews how mid- to upper-level managers can become effective leaders by drawing on knowledge of the major concepts, theories and skills used in the field of organizational behavior. A major focus of this course is on developing leadership diagnostic and problem solving skills through participating in numerous analyses of the kinds of situations requiring management attention that mid- to upper-level executives are likely to encounter. Throughout this course particular emphasis is placed on the ethical, international and multicultural dimensions of organizational leadership. Students conduct research on selected topics in the fields of leadership and organizational behavior. Students also participate in a wide variety of self-assessment exercises that will help them better understand what they need to do next to become more effective leaders.
Prerequisite(s): RSCH5500, completion of foundation courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT5900 Ethics, Corporate Social Responsibility and Law
The focus of this course is to challenge students in making difficult and necessary ethical choices on the basis of limited information and frequent conflicting values. In their future roles as professionals in a chosen field, students face moral temptation and ethical dilemmas that resist easy answers or simple formulas for action. A major goal of this course is to develop an analysis of the important role of all stakeholders in a corporation. The firm’s interaction with its environment, navigation through national and international laws reconciling various legal obligations, and impact as it discharges its responsibility to the world and local community is extensively shared through case studies and community service projects.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5000, completion of foundation courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT6000 The Leader as Coach
This is an advanced management course that enables students to gain competence in the specific techniques that effective leaders use to empower their workforce through coaching. Students learn the fundamental theories of coaching through selected readings and class presentations, and use this knowledge to engage in experiential exercises. During these exercises, students receive feedback on their technique. Once competence is gained in fundamental skills, students are encouraged to develop their own personal method of coaching and to adapt their style of coaching to different situations. Particular emphasis is given to dealing with cultural issues encountered when coaching a global workforce. Students conduct research through self-assessments and group projects on selected topics in coaching.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5800, RSCH5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours
MGMT6030 Entrepreneurship
This advanced management course enables students to gain competence in the specific techniques used by successful entrepreneurs. This course examines entrepreneurial myths and realities, as well as the concept of corporate entrepreneurship.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5800, RSCH5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT6050 Labor Relations
This course presents various labor and employment law issues that employers and employees confront in today's union and non-union corporate environments. The course surveys the effects of union organization and representation, collective bargaining negotiations, the grievance and arbitration processes and the laws, agencies and issues impacting labor-management relations in the public and private sector. Also discussed are various other legal issues including privacy, wages and salaries and employee misconduct.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5800, MGMT6123. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT6056 Contemporary Leadership Issues and Strategies
Building on concepts and skills acquired in our core leadership course (MGMT5800), this is an advanced leadership course that explores in depth the topic of how to deal with the multifaceted nature and challenges of contemporary leadership. Key themes in this course include identifying contemporary leadership issues and exploring the pros and cons of using different strategies to address these issues. The primary emphasis is on learning techniques that students can use to continue to develop their leadership skills as they progress in their respective careers. Employing a seminar/workshop format, students are required to research strategies for dealing with important contemporary leadership issues that they will pursue in depth and then present to the class. By the conclusion of this course, students are required to describe in writing the particular strategies, skills and sensibilities that they will need to continue to develop in order to fully realize their potential as leaders.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5800, RSCH5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT6075 International and Comparative Employment Law
This course examines the labor and employment law of various countries important to the global economy at the beginning of the 21st century. Regional trade agreements such as NAFTA and the European Union are also analyzed as well as international labor standards promulgated by the International Labor Organization. Key employment issues for comparative analysis include such areas as individual employment, unions and collective bargaining, discrimination and privacy.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT6123 or permission of dean.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT6123 Contemporary Human Resource Issues and Strategies
This course reviews how mid- to upper-level managers working collaboratively with human resource specialists in both domestic and international organizations can address traditional human resource concerns (employee recruitment, selection, training, motivation, compensation and performance appraisals) within the context of strategic planning. A major focus of this course is on developing diagnostic and problem solving skills through participating in numerous analyses of the kinds of human resource issues that mid to upper level executives are likely to encounter. Students conduct and present in-depth research on selected topics in the field of human resources.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5800. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MGMT6800 Business Policy and Strategy
This interdisciplinary capstone core course focuses on how to create, identify and manage competitive advantage within an organization. Students are encouraged to use skills and insights developed during prior coursework as they strategically analyze contemporary business issues and cases. Throughout the course, particular emphasis is placed upon developing both a strategic perspective and a global viewpoint. Students formulate strategies and tactics that are appropriate for the different organizations under consideration. Readings, exercises and class discussions focus on real-world examples of strategic issues that students are likely to encounter as managers of organizational units. Tools and techniques for performing strategies analyses and stimulating innovative problem solving in a highly competitive global environment are covered in detail. Students complete a major comprehensive project that is graded collaboratively.
Prerequisite(s): All core courses. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MRKT6550 Strategic Marketing
This course is designed for students who can apply skills and knowledge gained through previous courses or experience. The course emphasizes issues of setting a viable marketing strategy through segmentation, targeting and positioning in today's competitive global marketplace. Through case studies, course readings, lecture and student presentation opportunities, students address a wide range of marketing problems, many of which involve strategy. Additionally, through the cases and readings, students are exposed to a broad spectrum of marketing environments such as products and services or consumer markets versus business markets. The role of Brand Management in today's competitive environment is presented.
Prerequisite(s): MGMT5000, RSCH5500. (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MRKT6610 Advertising and Promotional Strategies
This course is focused on researching the marketplace, forecasting, planning, problem solving, and decision making as they apply to promotional activities. Students investigate the various areas of promotion, learn the skills necessary to work with an outside agency or an internal department, and analyze the major components of personal selling, advertising, sales promotion and public relations. Topics discussed include advertising objectives, budget, media strategies, client-agency relationships, and measuring advertising effectiveness.
Prerequisite(s): MRKT5500, RSCH5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MRKT6630 Marketing Research
This course is designed as an advanced study covering the total process of generating, transforming and appraising data into relevant information for the marketing decision-maker. Emphasis is placed on the utilization and analysis of research data. Additional areas discussed are research methodology, design techniques, survey development, sampling theories and techniques of statistical data analysis.
Prerequisite(s): MRKT5500, RSCH5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

MRKT6635 Brand Management
This advanced marketing course focuses on the role of brand management in organizations, both large and small. A key component of this course is the historical development and current evolution of brands. The role of technology is explored. Current issues in brand management are an integral part of this course.
Prerequisite(s): MRKT5500, RSCH5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours
MRKT6543 Social Media & Internet Marketing
This course provides students with a broad view of the evolution of social media and Internet marketing. Social media and Internet marketing integration into a communication strategy are presented for both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations. Students are challenged to execute social media and Internet advertising and measure the results. Analyses of research include qualitative and quantitative examination. Students are expected to have a solid understanding of the traditional marketing mix and a working understanding of social media and Internet advertising.
Prerequisite(s): MRKT5500.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

RSCCH5500 Business Information and Decision Making
This course enables graduate students to develop problem-solving, critical thinking and quality decision-making skills that are important for business managers and leaders. Students examine processes for problem solving and develop techniques in critical thinking to improve their understanding and evaluation of business information. The course examines the research process from preliminary data-gathering techniques to problem identification and hypothesis development. Students review pertinent literature as secondary sources, critique published materials and focus on the nature of primary, empirical research and the elements of research design. Particular attention is given to the student’s perspective of the research process and its applicability to his/her career endeavors. The course provides a forum for the student to improve research and presentation skills through discussion and practical applications.
Prerequisite(s): MATHS5000, Completion of foundation courses. (HY) (OL)
Offered at Grad, Online
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

RSCCH6041 Special Topics in Research Methods
This course provides theoretical, conceptual, practical and applied knowledge and skills regarding multivariate research and statistical techniques to students who do not necessarily need the technical and/or specific mathematical expertise of these methods. Instead, students are required to relate the basic concepts (variables used in the formulas, but not the mathematical derivation of the formulas) and practical applications of these advanced methods in order to interpret the results of research studies that have utilized such methods as well as apply these analytical methods to their own work and data analyses. Advanced study of analysis of variance techniques (e.g., MANOVA and multiple regression) are developed. This course is appropriate for students who want to advance their research and statistical knowledge and skills to the doctoral level and above. The course utilizes The Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS™). Real cases from education, business, social sciences and various organizations provide data sets for application to other environments and disciplines.

RSCCH6999 Comprehensive Exam
All non-certified Teacher Education students, regardless of GPA, must successfully pass a comprehensive exam. Comprehensive exams are scheduled no earlier than the last term of course work. 0 Quarter Credit Hours

SPED5001 Inclusive Teaching of Exceptional Learners
This course examines the theoretical perspectives, general procedures, federal law and Rhode Island regulations of educating students with exceptionalities in today’s schools. Special attention is given to the inclusion of students with exceptionalities in the regular education classroom to ensure access to high quality teaching and learning. Parental involvement and advocacy are examined. Participants gain experience and the understanding that inclusive practices are intricate and collaborative work through their own fieldwork and course content. Participants gain knowledge of the characteristics and needs of all students, including gifted and talented students and those from diverse backgrounds.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

SPED5002 Curriculum and Methods for Exceptional Learners
This course is designed to teach participants how to develop instruction that targets the learning differences of students with exceptionalities. Participants interpret data within a problem-solving framework with the goal of enabling exceptional learners to succeed. They use curriculum-based evaluation procedures to identify important learning goals in content areas and use instructional strategies, accommodations and modifications to facilitate student learning and progress monitoring. Additionally, participants develop and interpret Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) to design explicit instruction and individualize to meet student needs.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

SPED5003 Understanding and Managing Behavior
This course examines the fundamentals of classroom management and student behavior that are critical to successful learning environments and social interactions. The course presents research and effective strategies for developing and maintaining appropriate standards of behavior, classroom organization, management and optimal use of learning time. Additionally, it addresses the social, emotional and behavioral aspects of working with exceptional learners. Through class work and fieldwork, a range of social, emotional, behavioral and psycho-educational theories and interventions are examined and discussed.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

SPED5020 Assessment and Evaluation of Exceptional Learners
In this course candidates learn the steps in the special education referral and evaluation process, as delineated by Rhode Island and federal regulations. Students learn to do the following: use methods and tools of structured observations, determine appropriate assessments, present and discuss test results as part of an evaluation team, and collaboratively develop an Individualized Educational Plan (IEP). Additionally candidates examine current evaluative tools used in the diagnostic process. Technical principles of assessment are discussed, including such topics as validity, reliability, standardization, issues of bias and cultural awareness.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
4.5 Quarter Credit Hours

SPED5042 Collaboration: Home/School/Community
This course prepares participants to effectively collaborate with families, other educators, related service providers, and personnel from community agencies in culturally responsive ways particularly as it relates to the IEP process. Participants are taught to focus on the role of the family as addressed by IDEA, and to work through the special education processes of referrals, evaluations, IEPs, and transitions of individuals with exceptional learning needs. Participants explore and develop transition plans for students with exceptionalities. Participants learn the role of the special educator as advocate and facilitator of collaboration throughout these processes.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
2.25 Quarter Credit Hours

SPED5220 Communication: Language Development and Learning
In this course, students learn that language development forms the basis for learning and is a key component in fostering student progress. This course addresses issues surrounding language development as it relates to learning, both as a language disability and for the English language learner.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of prior cohort classes.
Offered at Grad
2.25 Quarter Credit Hours
SPED6061 Student Teaching: Secondary Special Education, Part I
Students in this course spend four weeks in a teaching situation at a public school site under the direct supervision of a secondary education special education cooperating teacher. During this initial stage of student teaching, students plan and implement lessons with the guidance of their cooperating teacher. Students are required to demonstrate their understanding of the RIBTS and CEC Standards by collecting evidence for their student teacher’s portfolio. Students participate in several seminars directly related to their student teaching experience.
Prerequisite(s): Completion of all M.A.T. program courses, passing score on Content Area Exam, department permission.
Offered at Grad

Academic Information

This section of the catalog contains important information about the academic requirements and policies of Johnson & Wales University, as well as additional educational components including experiential education and study abroad opportunities, and available honors programs and academic societies.

Class Schedules

The course schedule (https://uconnect.jwu.edu/prod/bwckschd.p_disp_dyn_sched) is published before registration begins for each term/semester. The course schedule will include course meeting days and times, seat capacity, course prerequisites and additional information for courses meeting the search criteria.

Occasionally, make-up classes are scheduled, due to holidays or other missed days, to meet minimum classroom hour requirements. The dates of these rescheduled classes are available in jwuLink (https://link.jwu.edu). It is possible that at times a course may not be rescheduled and the student will be responsible for all work as outlined in the syllabus.

Please note that students enrolled in courses at the university may be required to participate in online discussion forums, student-to-student collaborations and student presentations with other students as part of course requirements.

Summer Sessions

MBA program summer session courses may be offered. Not all courses are offered in the summer; as a result, summer completion cannot be guaranteed.

A summer term is mandatory in the M.A.T. programs due to course sequencing. Additionally, doctoral program students who do not complete the dissertation in the prescribed time will be automatically registered for EDUC9011 Doctoral Dissertation Advisement which will result in a fee being assessed each semester, including summer, until the successful completion of program requirements or an approved leave of absence is granted.

Academic Policies

This section of the catalog contains important information about the academic policies of Johnson & Wales University, the grading system and other academic requirements.

Academic Standing

A student’s academic standing is based on grade point average (GPA) in conjunction with total attempted credits (including transfer credits) and is evaluated after the completion of each term of enrollment. Academic standing standards differ by program of study. Please refer to the following academic standing standards charts. If students are not in good academic standing or have questions about the requirements for graduation, they should make an appointment with an academic counselor for assistance in assessing their situation.

Students who meet the following criteria are considered to be in good academic standing:

- Undergraduate students need a minimum GPA of 2.0.
- Graduate students need a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- Doctoral students need a minimum GPA of 3.25.
- 4+1 B.S./MBA/M.S. program students need a minimum GPA of 3.0 in graduate-level coursework.

According to the following academic standing standards, students who do not satisfy good academic standing requirements will be placed on probation, suspended (undergraduate students only) or dismissed.

Note: Doctoral students will be dismissed if their GPA is less than 3.25, or when they earn a grade of F, WF or W in any course. (No classes may be repeated.)

Academic Probation
Probation may affect a student's ability to register and/or graduate. Graduate program students and 4+1 B.S./MBA/M.S. program students are allowed one term only on probation.

Academic Suspension
Suspended students may not matriculate at the university for at least one term and are expected to work on academic deficiencies. To return to the university, these students must petition the Academic Appeals Committee, providing a letter of intent and documentation of academic improvement. The committee will consider appeals that document mitigating circumstances.

Academic Dismissal
Dismissed students may no longer matriculate at the university and are expected to work on academic deficiencies. To return to the university, students may petition the Academic Appeals Committee, providing a letter of intent and documentation of academic improvement. The committee will consider appeals that document mitigating circumstances.

Academic Warning
Students who are reinstated into the university will be placed on Academic Warning. These students risk permanent dismissal from the university if they are unable to meet academic standing guidelines. The warning designation is sometimes used to override academic standing decisions at the end of the term due to mitigating circumstances.

These undergraduate students will be allowed to register for a maximum of 13.5 credits in academic classes or 15 credits in laboratory classes. In addition, these students will be required to attend a mandatory student skills strategies seminar and tutoring in identified content areas. (Failure to complete these requirements will result in immediate dismissal.)

Attendance
All students are expected to attend each meeting of every class in which they are enrolled on time. The maximum number of absences for valid reasons is based on the quarter credit hours for the course, with the exception of experiential education assignments and laboratories, which have their own specific attendance criteria. Absences beyond the stated maximum for each course may jeopardize academic standing or financial aid.
Student Academic & Financial Services should be notified immediately of any necessary prolonged absences. The Student Handbook contains rules and policies for frequent or prolonged absences from class.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with attendance requirements outlined in the Student Handbook. The Student Handbook can be found online at catalog.jwu.edu/handbook.

Course Registration

New students are required to register for courses in jwuLink (https://link.jwu.edu/cp/home/displaylogin). Students can review program requirements and suggested course sequencing by utilizing Grad Planning System | GPS in jwuLink. A course registration tutorial is also available to assist students with the course registration process.

Doctoral students are registered for courses each semester by Student Academic & Financial Services.

Credits and Grades

Unit of Credit

The university measures undergraduate and graduate academic progress using the quarter credit hour system. Courses are offered in three formats and may combine two or more of those formats, which are lecture, laboratory and experiential.

Generally, one quarter credit represents 10 hours of instruction, which include class lecture and additional activities; one quarter credit hour equals two laboratory hours or three experiential hours. Furthermore, all courses require additional hours of study and preparation outside of the classroom or learning environment.

Doctoral programs operate under a semester credit hour system. The university converted to a quarter credit hour system from a semester credit hour system in September 1994 for undergraduate and graduate programs. Please note that 3.0 semester credits equal 4.5 quarter credits.

Graduate Grading System

Grade Pending (GP)

A temporary mark given when the completion of course requirements is still underway. A grade pending is not calculated into the cumulative average and is generally used under extreme, extenuating circumstances. If a grade is not submitted to replace the “GP” within one year, it will automatically become an “F.”

Audit (AU)

An audit occurs when no academic credit is granted. This grade is not calculated into the cumulative average.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U)

Used for designated courses throughout the university.

No Grade (NG)

“No Grade” is issued temporarily when there is no grade provided by the faculty member. This grade is not factored into the student’s GPA. Once a grade is submitted, the cumulative average and transcript will reflect only the new grade. If a grade is not submitted to replace the “NG” within one year, it will automatically become an “F” and the grade will be included in the grade point average.

Full-time Status

Full-time status is determined on a term-by-term/semester-by-semester basis. Master’s and doctoral program students are considered full-time if enrolled in 9 quarter credit/semester hours per term/semester.

MBA Prerequisites and Foundations

Prerequisite courses are undergraduate classes required for students who need to prepare for graduate study. Course descriptions for undergraduate prerequisite courses are listed in the university’s undergraduate catalog (http://catalog.jwu.edu/programsofstudy/fullcourselisting).

Foundation courses are graduate-level courses that may be required of some students whose previous academic background does not reflect the course content described. Foundation courses with grades below a C will need to be repeated. The academic standing standards (http://catalog.jwu.edu/handbook/academicpolicies/academicstandards) for students in foundation courses are the same as stated for students in the MBA program. Students should refer to the Standardized Testing and Prior Learning Assessment Brochure (http://www.jwu.edu/uploadedFiles/Documents/Admissions/brochures/JWUStandardizedTestingBrochure.pdf) for policies and procedures regarding satisfying prerequisite and foundation requirements through testing options. These options may not be exercised after the first term of enrollment in graduate school. Contact Graduate Admissions (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?ID=36586) for more information on prerequisite and foundation courses.

Comparable undergraduate courses completed within the past 10 years are acceptable for transfer credit. The time requirement may be waived with work-related experience and the approval of the dean. Candidates must submit official college transcripts from all colleges previously attended prior to enrolling at JWU. Transcripts must be in English (students are responsible for providing official translations, if needed). Students wishing to review credits for prerequisite and foundation courses must contact a Transfer Student Advisor for Student Academic & Financial Services (for domestic institution transcripts) or International Admissions (for international institution transcripts).

Reinstatement Policy
Due to progress and change in curriculum, students who have been inactive for one or more years will follow the new academic program. Graduate courses taken three or more years ago may need to be retaken. Undergraduate courses taken 10 or more years ago may need to be retaken.

Repeat of Courses
Graduate students will be allowed no more than three (3) attempts to successfully complete each course (foundation courses with grades below a B are not considered successfully completed and must be repeated). Students who passed the course but wish to improve their grade may repeat the course if it is available. However, students are eligible for financial aid for only one repetition of a previously passed course. The highest grade earned will be calculated into the grade point average. When a student has repeated a course previously applied to an awarded degree, both grades will be included in the grade point average.

Required Courses
Students who do not successfully complete a course after a second attempt will be assigned an academic standing hold and will be placed on academic probation. Students who do not successfully complete the same course after a third attempt may be academically dismissed.

Students who attempt the same course three times and earn a combination of "W", "WF" and "F" grades will be assigned an academic standing hold; these students may be subject to academic dismissal if the course is not successfully completed during the next course offering.

Appeals
Appeals regarding academic dismissal can be made to the Academic Appeals Committee after one term of nonmatriculation if extenuating circumstances exist. A student may appeal only once, and the decision of the committee is final.

Concentrations
In programs of study that require a concentration, students will be given the following options in the event that they cannot successfully complete a concentration course requirement at the third attempt:
1. make an alternate concentration course selection (if available) or
2. select a new concentration to meet degree requirements.

Courses Not Required
If the attempted course is not a specific degree requirement, the student will be unable to attempt the course again. The student must then select an alternate course to meet degree requirements.

Academic Counseling
Academic counselors are available in Student Academic & Financial Services to assist students with preparation for graduation. Their goal is to assist students in evaluating, developing and maximizing their potential by providing guidance and support. All students are encouraged to meet with an academic counselor. Students on academic probation, repeat course probation and/or satisfactory academic progress warning are required to meet with an academic counselor. Appointments are recommended.

Academic Transcripts
A transcript is a representation of a student’s entire academic record while at Johnson & Wales University. In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a transcript may be released only upon written request of the student. Students can also submit transcript requests online through jwuLink (https://link.jwu.edu/cp/home/displaylogin). Students intending to pick up transcripts in person must make the request in person at Student Academic & Financial Services or complete a transcript request form.

The university does not charge a fee for transcripts; however, official transcripts will not be released if a student is not current in all financial obligations to the university. Within three business days of receipt of an authorized request, official transcripts will be printed on official paper and then placed in sealed envelopes issued directly to the student or authorized designee. The university does not email transcripts. Transcripts are not official if faxed. A maximum of 20 official transcripts may be requested per year. Official transcripts are not produced while grade processing and posting is in progress at the end of each term/semester.

Unofficial transcripts may be obtained in jwuLink (http://link.jwu.edu).

Requirements
Residency Requirement
Residency requirement refers to the number of courses and credits a student must take at Johnson & Wales University. The residency requirement for all students pursuing a master’s degree is a minimum of 45 quarter credit hours. Due to the overlap in core curriculum, students who complete an MBA at the university are not eligible to complete a second MBA at Johnson & Wales University. However, any student who received a master’s degree from Johnson & Wales University may apply for admittance to an M.S., M.Ed. or M.A.T. program at the university through Graduate Admissions. Up to two courses from the first master’s degree may be transferred into the second degree, if applicable. Students must meet the entrance requirements for the prospective program to gain admittance, and be in good academic and financial standing.

Graduation Requirements
Each student is required to submit an online graduation application at least two terms prior to degree completion. The application ensures that students are reviewed for graduation at the correct time, that correct information is presented on the diploma, and that it is mailed to the correct address. Graduation requires successful completion of a prescribed sequence of study and a minimum grade point average of 3.00 (3.25 for doctoral program students). Foundation and prerequisite courses are not calculated into the graduating grade point average. Students with a cumulative GPA below 3.00 will not be in compliance with the criteria for good academic standing and may be subject to academic dismissal. In addition, doctoral program students must not receive a grade of ‘F’ or ‘W’ in a course.

All students must be current in all financial obligations to the university, including tuition, fees and other expenses, before a diploma will be issued. Permission to participate in commencement exercises does not imply that graduation requirements have been met.

Experiential Education & Career Services
Experiential Education & Career Services offers a variety of internship programs and career services to assist students in building career skills to obtain employment and independently navigate their careers. Career services components include:
• internship programs for academic credit
• résumé and job search workshops
• graduate-level résumé samples
• online job postings by employers looking to hire JWU students
• networking opportunities with industry professionals

Johnson & Wales University
• annual career fairs and events
• one-on-one career advising

Admissions

Johnson & Wales University’s admissions process goes beyond simply looking for academically accomplished students. The university seeks to attract and retain highly motivated and demonstrably capable students. Students’ motivation and interest in succeeding in their chosen careers are given strong consideration.

While not required for all programs of study at the graduate level, students are encouraged to submit employment information and letters of recommendation for admissions consideration. Students applying for admission to the M.A.T. and Ed.D programs are required to submit employment information and letters of recommendation.

Applying

JWU graduate programs attract a diverse group of motivated individuals with the potential for being successful in their chosen program. The admissions process is based on careful, case-by-case evaluation of academic records, professional achievements and other aptitudes of the applicant. Johnson & Wales University believes diversity is essential to a productive graduate-level experience, and thus welcomes applicants from varied academic and professional backgrounds.

Applications for admission to JWU graduate programs are processed in the order received according to the start date specified on the application. Once all application requirements are met, Graduate Admissions takes pride in the timely processing of applications. Enrollment is limited and applicants are encouraged to submit required documents as early as possible.

Admission Requirements

Prior to being considered for admission into a JWU graduate program, the following must be submitted:

1. A completed application (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?id=53342) for admission.
2. Official, final transcripts documenting all undergraduate and graduate work. When a graduate school application is submitted prior to completing requirements for the bachelor’s degree, Graduate Admissions will consider the application and, if admissible, will offer an acceptance pending submission of required documents. A final transcript verifying completion must be submitted prior to enrollment.
3. Two letters of recommendation from individuals qualified to acknowledge the applicant’s potential for successful completion of the graduate program. These letters may be emailed or faxed to 401-598-1286. Note: Three letters are required for the doctoral program.

The minimum GPA and additional requirements for each program are noted below.

Please Note: If you do not meet the minimum GPA requirements for any graduate business programs (excluding 4 + 1) as indicated below, the Admissions Committee will give consideration for admittance to the program desired, if you provide acceptable GMAT/GRE scores.

Pre-MBA Program

The Pre-MBA program at Johnson & Wales University is designed for outstanding international students who have completed a three-year bachelor’s degree in countries where the three-year bachelor’s degree is considered the dominant degree in specific areas of study.

The program provides qualified three-year degree holders the opportunity, through a Pre-MBA schedule of undergraduate courses, to equate their education to a four-year U.S. bachelor’s degree while fulfilling MBA program prerequisites.

Students successfully completing the Pre-MBA program with a grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0 will enroll directly into their selected MBA program.

Eligibility

The Pre-MBA program is offered only at the Providence Campus.

Applicants to the Pre-MBA program must hold a three-year bachelor’s degree from a recognized institution.

Candidates must successfully complete the English as a Second Language program if they do not submit a passing score on the language proficiency test as stated under the English Proficiency Requirement (http://catalog.jwu.edu/admissions/international/toeflrequirements).

Application Procedure

Please refer to the International Admissions Requirements (http://catalog.jwu.edu/admissions/international).

Please note: Students accepted to the Pre-MBA program cannot transfer to the MBA program without first completing all Pre-MBA program requirements.

Scholarships

Students who successfully complete the Pre-MBA program with the required minimum 3.0 GPA needed to enter the MBA program will receive a nonrenewable $2,000 MBA scholarship awarded over the length of the program.
Course Requirements
This program requires that a minimum of 10 undergraduate courses be taken by the student at Johnson & Wales University. The courses generally take place on the Downcity Campus, through the College of Business and the School of Arts & Sciences.

Course substitutions of higher-level subjects and electives in a comparable discipline may be approved based on previous study, but no exemptions will be made which result in a reduced number of required courses. Course registration for Pre-MBA students will be done through Student Academic Services in the Student Services Center, located on the Downcity Campus.

Pre-MBA course descriptions are listed in the undergraduate catalog (http://catalog.jwu.edu/providence).

MBA/M.S. Programs
To be considered for acceptance into the program, applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree along with the minimum GPA and additional requirements (p. 51).

Transfer Credits
A candidate for a JWU MBA/M.S. degree program may petition to receive a maximum of nine quarter credit hours of transfer credit for graduate-level courses taken at approved colleges. To receive transfer credit, the courses must cover content equivalent to courses offered in the core or concentration that the student plans to enter, and must be approved by the dean or MBA/ M.S. program director.

Transfer candidates should submit official college transcripts from any colleges previously attended prior to enrolling in graduate courses. The student must also have earned a grade of “B” or better. Credits earned more than three years prior to enrollment in a JWU master’s degree program are not transferable without special permission from the dean or MBA/M.S. program director.

Once enrolled in a JWU master’s degree program, a student may not take courses elsewhere and apply them for transfer credit. Transfer credits should be requested prior to initial matriculation into a JWU master’s degree program.

International Admissions Requirements
Applicants who are not U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. must meet the same admissions requirements as all other applicants, in addition to supplying the following:

1. Certified copy of scores for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), Michigan English Language Assessment Battery (MELAB) test, or International English Language Test System (IELTS). Please see English Proficiency Requirements (http://catalog.jwu.edu/admissions/international/toeflrequirements) for scores required for admission.

2. Declaration of Financial Support signed by both the applicant and the sponsor

3. Certified Bank Statement within three months of submitting your application

4. Copy of the biographical section of your current passport

NOTE: Transcripts, test scores and bank statements must be originals or certified true copies and must be received in a sealed envelope. Certified copies of transcripts from the school are acceptable. Unofficial photocopies cannot be accepted.

All documents which are not in English must be accompanied by a certified (notarized) translation. Transcripts from institutions located outside the United States will be assessed according to substantive content, comparable equivalency to an accredited institution in the U.S., and official educational policies implemented within the country where the institution operates. Course descriptions may occasionally be necessary in order to ascertain course content.

International students filing an application outside the United States must submit all required documents at least eight weeks prior to the selected enrollment date.

English Proficiency Requirement
Johnson & Wales University recognizes the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) as proof of English proficiency. TOEFL scores must be received as official ETS scores. The university’s Designated Institution (D.I.) code is: 3465. This code should be used on your TOEFL registration form so that your scores will be sent to us directly.

Minimum TOEFL requirements (all levels, undergraduate and graduate) are as follows: 80 (Internet-based or IBT), 550 (pen/paper or PPT).

Individual section scores must also meet minimum score requirements.

Acceptable proof of English proficiency may also include one of the following comparable English proficiency examinations: IELTS (Cambridge), Band 6.5; ELS Level 112 Certificate of Completion and Academic Report; City & Guilds Pitman ESOL Examinations – Higher Intermediate or Expert Level; The London Tests of English LTE, Level 4 (Advanced); MELAB (Michigan English Language Battery) – 77; S.T.E.P. Eiken (Society for Testing English Proficiency) – Grade 1.

Other English language examination results will also be considered, and experience studying in the English language, as documented through school transcripts, will be taken into consideration.

To meet English proficiency requirements, all English language examination results must be submitted on an official test transcript which is no more than two years old. Students may be exempted from individual ESL classes based on their individual TOEFL (or equivalent test) section scores. JWU also reserves the right to require ESL classes or workshops to increase proficiency in a particular area, regardless of total TOEFL or other test scores. Students who submit passing total test scores but with section scores lower than 17 (TOEFL – IBT) or 5.5 (IELTS), or equivalent test section score, may be required to attend a graduate language proficiency workshop.

International Student Visa
Responsibility for obtaining the approved visa classification rests entirely with students. Students entering the United States to study will need an F-1 international student visa. In order to obtain the necessary visa, students must submit the valid Form I-20 for an F-1 visa to the United States Embassy or Consulate in the country of residence. In addition to these forms, students will have to present a passport and evidence of financial support.

Johnson & Wales University will send the Form I-20 after students have been accepted and have submitted evidence of financial support. International students must register for the term for which admission is offered and must maintain full-time status during the academic year.

International Transfer Students
International students currently studying in the U.S. who seek enrollment in a JWU graduate program are required to submit a Transfer Release Form (completed by the foreign student advisor at the institution you last attended) prior to receiving a Form I-20.

M.A.T. Program
To be considered for acceptance into the program, applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree along with the minimum GPA and additional requirements (p. 51).

Additionally, the following must be completed:

1. All coursework in the areas listed below must show a grade of B or above in order for the admissions candidate to avoid having to take additional course work prior to being granted full admission into the program:

   - Elementary Education and Special Education
   - Mathematics (college level)
   - Literature
   - Writing/Composition
   - Science (biology, chemistry, physics)
   - History (American survey course)
   - Educational or Developmental (Child/Adolescent) Psychology

   Business Education and Secondary Special Education
   - All of the above, and evidence of the following:
   - Accounting — Business Law
   - Management — Marketing
   - Economics — Career Development
   - Personal Finance — Information Technology
   - International Business — Keyboarding

   Food Service Education
   - Transcript approval by culinary academic dean

2. Complete a successful interview with M.A.T. staff member in which he/she will answer questions regarding his/her knowledge of and dispositions

Johnson & Wales University

Ed.D. Program

Admission Requirements
To be considered for acceptance into the program, applicants must possess a bachelor’s degree along with the minimum GPA and additional requirements
(p. 51).

Program Requirements
To satisfy program requirements, each student must successfully:
1. complete 60 credit hours (48 hours of course work and 12 hours of dissertation work, which forms the basis for the dissertation);
2. maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25;
3. maintain continuous enrollment, even during dissertation work;
4. successfully complete the comprehensive assessment;
5. submit a dissertation proposal within three years of matriculation; and
6. complete all program requirements within six academic years from the initial date of matriculation.

NOTE: For a valid reason, the Educational Leadership program director may extend deadlines.

In addition, students must have a computer which connects through a high-speed Internet connection. A hybrid method of teaching is utilized in the program that includes characteristics of both synchronous and asynchronous instruction. All communication to students from the university will be conducted through the university email system, and students are required to use and check this account on a regular basis.

A student becomes an official candidate for the degree upon successfully completing all courses and receiving formal approval of the dissertation proposal.

Enrollment Date Change
Students wishing to change their selected date of enrollment should forward a request to Graduate Admissions stating the term they wish to enroll.
International students must also return the original I-20 form, unless the
I-20 was secured at the student’s embassy, and submit a new original bank statement. Please note that some programs start only once each year.

Technical Standards for M.A.T. with Food Service Education Concentration
To participate in the M.A.T. in Teacher Education program with a concentration in Food Service Education, each student, with or without reasonable accommodations, must be able to safely and effectively
• communicate in person with co-workers and guests
• attend and participate in laboratory and production classes of up to six hours in length
• lift and transport food and other culinary product, equipment, small wares and utensils
• lift and transport trays with hot and cold plated foods, small wares, and other items, and serve and clear tables where guests are seated
• pour and serve liquids and beverages, including hot liquids
• use knives and other commercial cooking utensils
• operate commercial cooking and food service equipment
• maneuver in professional or commercial kitchens, dining rooms and related facilities
• test and evaluate the taste, appearance, texture and aroma of food and beverage products
• use commercial cleaning and sanitizing equipment and materials
The foregoing technical standards are essential to the M.A.T. in Teacher Education program with a concentration in Food Service Education, and also reflect industry requirements and standards.

Learning Assessment
For annual examination schedules with examination dates and application deadlines, refer to the Graduate Standardized Testing and Prior Learning Assessment Brochure (http://www.jwu.edu/uploadedFiles/Documents/
In all cases, the academic department determines policy as it relates to the testing options for each course in the department. Several options may be available to students, and it is recommended that students seek the advice of an academic counselor.

Policies for Challenge and CLEP Examinations:
1. Course prerequisite requirements must be completed before permission to participate in a standardized testing option will be granted.
2. Challenge Exams cannot be repeated if failed.
3. The CLEP Exam requires a passing score of 50 or higher for CLEP credit to be awarded.
4. CLEP Exams, if failed, can be repeated in six months.
5. CLEP Exams and Challenge Exams may not be substituted for a class previously failed or one where a withdrawal (W) or a withdrawal/fail (WF) grade has been issued. They may not be substituted for a class previously taken or a class in which the student is presently scheduled.
6. The standardized examinations mentioned above must fall within the residency requirement (http://catalog.jwu.edu/handbook/academicinformation/residencyrequirement) for each degree.
7. Application and processing fees are nonrefundable.
8. Students must present a valid picture ID when testing.

After being determined eligible to test, students will be notified by email of the time and location of their test. For additional policies/information for Challenge and CLEP options, refer to the brochure.
Financing Your Education

This section of the catalog contains information on tuition and fees, financial policies and obligations, financial aid and payment options. There is also information on loans, grants, scholarships and work programs for eligible students depending on campus and degree program.

Graduate Tuition

The following tuition and fees schedules are effective for the 2013–2014 academic year for programs at the Providence and Denver campuses. Tuition and fees are subject to change annually.

MBA Tuition:
$390/quarter credit hour
$100/additional fee for online courses in Providence
$100/additional fee for all courses in Denver

Most graduate courses are 4.5 quarter credit hours at a cost of $1,755 each or $1,855 each for online courses. If attending the Denver Campus all 4.5 quarter credit hour courses will be charged tuition at $1,755 plus an additional fee of $100, each course totaling $1,855 per course. The Enhanced Accounting Track non-credit CPA review is charged at equivalent tuition rates.

Undergraduate Prerequisite Courses:
$180/quarter credit hour
Most prerequisite courses are 4.5 quarter credit hours at a cost of $810 each.

Pre-MBA Program:
Tuition (for one term) $6,148
$342/quarter credit hour
Orientation Fee $300

English as a Second Language (ESL):
Tuition (for one term) $6,148
Orientation Fee $300

M.A.T./M.Ed. Tuition
$354/quarter credit hour
Most graduate courses are 4.5 quarter credit hours at a cost of $1,593 each.

Ed.D. Tuition
$744/quarter credit hour
Doctoral courses are 6 semester credit hours at a cost of $4,464 each.

Fees

Ed.D. Application Fee: $200
This nonrefundable fee is required with the student’s application for admission, and is credited to tuition due upon entrance.

MBA/M.A.T./M.Ed. Deposit: $100
Ed.D. Deposit: $300
Three weeks after official acceptance is granted, a nonrefundable deposit is due. This deposit is credited to tuition due upon entrance.

Ed.D. Dissertation Advisement Fee: $1,398/semester
While completing the dissertation only (with no other courses scheduled), students are ineligible for financial aid and in-school loan deferments.

Student Health Insurance Plan (when enrolled) $1,299 annually

All registered, undergraduate day students, both domestic and international, all students enrolled in the physician assistant degree program, and all international graduate and doctoral students attending Johnson & Wales University are required to have health insurance coverage that is accepted in the United States. If students have health insurance coverage through another means (i.e. parent’s health insurance or an employer program) they do not have to enroll in the Johnson & Wales student health insurance plan. They can opt out of/waive the university plan by submitting the online waiver form to demonstrate evidence of coverage. A new waiver form must be submitted each academic year. Students who are required to have health insurance and do not waive the Johnson & Wales University plan will be charged for it. The cost for the Johnson & Wales student health insurance is $1,299 for an academic year. Details of the plan, including the full brochure and benefit flyer, can be found on the Health Services (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?id=10320) page of the JWU website.

Books, Supplies and Transportation Costs

The cost of books and supplies is approximately $600 per academic term. The cost of transportation is approximately $333 per academic term. These costs are not applied to the student’s invoice. Books and supplies must be paid for at the university’s bookstores at the time of purchase. The bookstores operate a textbook sales/buy-back program to help students minimize these costs.

Payment Options

Annual Payments

The student may make one payment in full for the entire academic year. Students are responsible for paying all charges in full or making appropriate arrangements by the published due date each term. The September 2013 payment due date is August 9, 2013 for domestic students and August 23, 2013 for international students.

Term Payments

Students may choose to make three payments a year, which are payable by the published due date each term. The September 2013 payment due date is August 9, 2013 for domestic students and August 23, 2013 for international students.

Monthly Payments

Students may choose to pay the annual amount due in convenient monthly payments. This option is available through Tuition Management Systems (TMS) (https://www.afford.com). There is an enrollment fee to participate. Most plans are essentially interest free, but some accounts may incur late fees, reinstatement fees or other fees. Students interested in this option must contract with TMS and pay the first payment, in addition to the enrollment fee, by the published due date of August 9, 2013 for domestic students and August 23, 2013 for International students.

All Johnson & Wales University students must fulfill their financial obligations to the university by the published due date of August 9, 2013 for domestic students and August 23, 2013 for international students (all off-term entrants must meet the financial obligation by the published date for that term).

To meet your financial obligation you must do one of the following by the published due date:

• Make a full term payment.
• Contract with TMS and pay the first monthly payment, as well as the enrollment fee.
• Have an approved loan which covers the annual balance.
• Have an approved payment plan with Student Academic & Financial Services using a combination of the above options.

Ed.D. Program Semesters

Doctoral billing for tuition and fees is done on a semester basis. Students are responsible for paying all charges in full or making appropriate arrangements by the published due date stated for each semester. The September 2013 payment due date is August 9, 2013.

Refund Policies

General Policy

To the extent that any charges due to the university remain unpaid, no refund check will be issued. No tuition or fees will be assessed for terms that the student does not begin. Students who withdraw from the university prior to the end of the academic year may have their financial aid adjusted. Institutional grants and scholarships will be reduced in proportion to any tuition credit received as defined in the university’s Withdrawal Credit Policy. The distribution formula for refunds to the Federal Student Financial Aid program will be calculated according to federal regulations. The university’s Withdrawal Credit Policy applies to all withdrawals from the university, voluntary or involuntary.

Term charges, institutional merit scholarships and institutional aid are subject to the university’s Withdrawal Credit Policy upon withdrawal from the university. Term charges are defined as tuition, and if applicable, Dissertation Advisement Fee and orientation fee. Merit scholarships and institutional aid are defined as any source of funding from Johnson & Wales University. The official notice of withdrawal from the university may be made in person or by written notification through Student Academic & Financial Services. Refunds are calculated by the date of termination which is based on the date Student Academic & Financial Services receives notification of withdrawal from the student or faculty member (culinary/pastry lab or experiential education courses only). Any refund due will be issued within 45 days after the date that the university was first notified of the withdrawal.

Unofficial Withdrawal Policy

The federal regulations require that students who begin attendance but fail to earn a passing grade in at least one course in any term and who do not officially withdraw shall be considered as having unofficially withdrawn from the university unless the university can document that the student completed at least 60 percent of the period of enrollment and earned the grade of "F." A student must be engaged in academically related activities beyond the 60 percent of the enrollment period in order to retain eligibility for federal, institutional, and external financial aid. If a student was not engaged in any academically related activities beyond the 60 percent, they will be assigned a withdrawal date based on the last date of an academically related activity.

All other instances when a student withdraws without providing official notification will be the 60 percent point of the period of enrollment, as applicable. A student who does not earn at least one passing grade during a term for which federal funds were disbursed will have a Return of Title IV Funds calculation performed to determine how much of the federal funds were earned. Unearned federal funds must be returned to the source, in most cases with a charge to the student’s university account.

University enrollment disputes must be submitted online within 30 days after the end of the term during which the student was enrolled. To submit a dispute, students must complete the appropriate form online (http://www.jwu.edu/sas). (Select your campus and then select Forms.) No adjustments to tuition and fees or financial aid will be made until the dispute is researched and either approved or denied. No disputes will be considered after 30 days from the end of the term in which the student was enrolled. Decisions will be made within 10 business days and students will receive notification via the email address provided on the dispute form.

Withdrawal Credit Policy

If a student terminates during

• the first and second week of the term, the university will credit 90 percent of the term charges.
• the third and fourth week of the term, the university will credit 50 percent of the term charges.
• the fifth and sixth week of the term, the university will credit 25 percent of the term charges.

After the sixth week of the term, students will be responsible for 100 percent of the term charges.

Refund Policy for Georgia Residents

The following refund policy is applicable to prospective students and students attending Johnson & Wales University who are legal residents of the state of Georgia.

• An accepted applicant will receive a refund of any amount paid to the university with respect to a term if, prior to the commencement of classes for that term, he or she makes a request for a refund to Student Academic & Financial Services within three business days after making the payment.
• A student who provides official notice of withdrawal following the commencement of the academic term will receive a pro rata refund of tuition and fees* (other than the orientation fee which is used for the purposes of orientation) as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percent of total class days in the academic term elapsed prior to date of official notice of withdrawal</th>
<th>Refund of tuition and fees</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 day–5%</td>

<td>75%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>26–50%</td>
<td>50%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 50%</td>
<td>No refund</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

* In the event that a refund is made under this policy, all institutional aid/scholarships for that term will be adjusted on a pro rata basis based upon the applicable refund. Official notice of withdrawal must be made by a student under this policy in person or by written notification to Student Academic & Financial Services. The date of an official notice of withdrawal is the date that it is received by Student Academic & Financial Services. Refunds are paid to students within 30 days of the official notice of withdrawal.

In the event that the University Withdrawal Credit Policy is more favorable than this Refund Policy for Georgia Residents, the university will refund to the student the greater amount in accordance with the university Withdrawal Credit Policy.

Notice Regarding Georgia Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission (NPEC) Student Complaint Process

Any person/student claiming damage or loss against Johnson & Wales University may file a verified complaint with the executive director of NPEC after going through the university Complaints and Grievances process. The complaint must contain a detailed description of the claim, including dates, times, and full names of all involved. Verification means that the complaint must be signed by the student/person filing the complaint and notarized and state that the matters set forth in the complaint are true and correct. The complaint shall be investigated by the appropriate Standards Administrator (SA) of NPEC. The SA shall attempt to resolve the complaint between the university and the student. If the complaint cannot be resolved, the SA will issue a decision and inform each party that either has a right to request a hearing in writing before the executive director of NPEC within 10 days of receipt of the SA’s decision. The executive director may set a date and time for a hearing which shall be delivered to both parties by certified mail.

Financial Obligations

Continued enrollment as a student in good standing and certain other student benefits (diplomas, transcripts, etc.) are conditioned upon being current in all financial obligations to the university, including loans in which the university appears as a holder or guarantor.

Financial Planning

The university understands that financing an education may be a very complex process for many students. In order to assist students and their families in these matters, Johnson & Wales has a staff of financial planning counselors. These counselors are available to work with students and their families on an individual basis to help them best utilize their own funds and other available resources to meet educational expenses. For more information and assistance, call 1-800-343-2565, locally 401-598-1468 or email sfs.pvd@jwu.edu.

Federal financial aid is not available to international students. International students must provide sufficient evidence of financial support in order to receive an I-20. The university awards scholarships based on academic merit. International students can contact the EducationUSA advising center in their country to learn more about opportunities for financial assistance.

Financial Aid

Federal financial aid programs are available to U.S. citizens, permanent residents or eligible non-citizens. Students may receive assistance from loans, limited institutional aid or work programs. If eligible for any one of these, or for a combination of both, it is referred to as a financial aid package. Student eligibility for these programs is based on the student’s completion and submission of the forms described in the How to Apply (p. 56) section. Since awards are not automatically renewable, the student must reapply each year.

Visit www.jwu.edu/financialaid for more information or call 1-800-343-2565 or 401-598-1468.

How to Apply

Students interested in applying for financial aid must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (http://www.FAFSA.ed.gov) (FAFSA). For information on the financial aid process or programs, contact Student Financial Services.

In order to be eligible for financial aid programs, the student must meet the following criteria:

1. Demonstrate financial need.
2. Maintain satisfactory academic progress. (Financial aid will be suspended until satisfactory academic progress is again achieved.)
3. Be enrolled in a degree program.
4. Be enrolled on at least a half-time basis. (A half-time basis is defined as carrying 4.5 quarter hour credits per term; students enrolled on a less-than-full-time basis may have their financial aid reduced.)
Federal Aid

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan*

This loan program offers low-interest loans to students who demonstrate little or no financial need. The federal government does not pay the interest on the borrower’s behalf while the borrower is enrolled in school. During that time, the student borrower can choose to make quarterly interest payments, or to “capitalize” interest. “Capitalizing” means the lender will add interest accrued to the principal balance. This will eliminate the need for interest payments while in school. A Master Promissory Note for these loans is located online (http://www.studentloans.gov).

Students should check with their financial planner to determine their maximum annual loan amount. Students must begin repayment six months after they leave college or drop below half-time status. The interest on the loan is not subsidized during the student’s six-month grace period. The amount of the student’s monthly payment will be determined based upon the amount of the student’s debt and the length of the student’s repayment.

Return of Title IV Funds

Federal regulations establish the following allocation for students who receive Title IV, HEA program funds:

A refund owed to a student who received funds under any Title IV, HEA program will be returned to the Title IV, HEA programs from which the student received aid in the following order until the amounts received by the student from these programs are eliminated: the Federal Subsidized Loan, the Federal Unsubsidized Loan program, all other sources of aid, and the student.

Institutional Aid

The MBA/M.S. Scholarship

Each year, Graduate Admissions awards a limited number of scholarships to MBA/M.S. applicants who are accepted as full-time students and reflect an ability to excel in their chosen program. The total amount of each scholarship is $1,000 and the scholarship will be credited to the student’s account in equal installments over three consecutive terms. The student must maintain full-time status while in receipt of the scholarship. Applicants must complete each section of the scholarship form and submit it with a résumé and interview with each hiring supervisor. Graduate Student Assistant participants are hired based on their ability to meet the minimum qualifications of the position for which they apply. Interested graduate students should contact Student Employment at 401-598-1849 for more information.

Grade Point Average Criteria

5. Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident or eligible non-citizen.
6. Not owe a refund on a Federal Pell Grant or be in default on a Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) or Supplemental Loan for Students (SLS).
7. Sign a Statement of Educational Purpose, a Statement of Registration Status, and a Statement on Overpayments and Defaults.

Students are eligible to receive financial aid as long as they maintain academic standing standards (p. 46) as defined in this catalog and in the Providence Campus Student Handbook (http://catalog.jwu.edu/handbook/providence). Students who fail to maintain satisfactory academic progress will be notified by Student Academic & Financial Services.

Academic Progress

Satisfactory Academic Progress

To be eligible for financial aid, all students must satisfy Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP), which is required by federal law. SAP measures a student’s completion of coursework towards a degree. JWU evaluates SAP at the end of each term, including summer, for each student. Students who do not meet all SAP criteria may lose their eligibility to receive all types of financial aid (e.g., federal, state, private, institutional and other aid). Students will be notified of the decision both verbally and in writing.

Maximum Time Frame Criteria

Completion of undergraduate or graduate programs cannot exceed 150 percent of the published length of the program measured in credit hours attempted as determined by the student’s program requirements.

Pace Measure of Academic Progress Criteria

- Students must complete a specified percentage of all credit hours attempted; see below.
- This percentage includes all credit hours attempted regardless of whether or not financial aid was received.
- This pace measurement is calculated by dividing the cumulative number of hours that the student has successfully completed by the cumulative number of hours that the student has attempted.
- Credits attempted are defined as all classes for which a student receives a grade (“D” or better), or an F, I, W, WP, WF, NC, GP, S, U, PL, CX, NG, AU etc.
- All transfer credit hours accepted from another institution towards the student’s educational program at JWU will be counted as both attempted and completed hours.
- The student’s GPA and pace of completion are negatively impacted by course incompletes, withdrawals, failures or repetitions (incompletes, failures and withdrawals count in attempted credits, but not completed).

Grade Point Average Criteria

- All undergraduate and graduate students must maintain a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA).
- The student’s cumulative GPA for financial aid eligibility must be calculated on all grades received.
- All students, regardless of their enrollment status (e.g., full or part time), must meet the following minimum academic standards to remain eligible for financial aid.

Warning Period

Students who fail to meet SAP criteria will be placed on financial aid warning for one academic term and a hold will be placed on the student’s record which will prevent them from course registration for all future terms.
Students remain eligible for financial aid during the warning term. If SAP criteria are not satisfied at the end of the warning term, the student will be ineligible for financial aid. Students on warning must meet with an academic counselor to clear the hold prior to course registration, and/or to pursue an appeal. Students on warning must submit their appeal and supporting documentation before the eighth week of the warning term.

Ineligible for Financial Aid Period

Students who fail to meet SAP criteria after the warning period are ineligible for financial aid. If the student does not have an approved appeal, the student is no longer eligible for financial aid. Students may continue to take courses without financial aid to re-establish SAP standards; however, a payment plan must be established for the tuition and applicable fees associated with the course(s). Once a student is meeting JWU’s minimum SAP standards, he/she may regain financial aid eligibility. Students who are interested in reestablishing aid eligibility should meet with an academic counselor to determine what they would need to do to meet JWU minimum SAP standards.

Appeal Process/Probationary Period

If extenuating circumstances impacted successful adherence to SAP criteria, the student may pursue an appeal. The appeal will require the student to indicate why he/she did not make SAP and what has changed in the student’s situation that will allow the student to demonstrate SAP by the next term. Circumstances and required documentation are illustrated below. The appeal process begins with the student’s academic counselor in Student Academic Services. If an academic plan can be created that allows the student to meet SAP criteria within two terms, the counselor will present it to the appeals committee. Appeals must include complete documentation and are reviewed during the warning period; incomplete appeals will be denied. Appeal decisions are final. Students will be notified of the decision both verbally and in writing. This notification will take place after final grades are reviewed for the warning period.

If an appeal is approved, the student will be placed on a Financial Aid Probation Period, which is a status assigned by JWU to a student who fails to make SAP and who has successfully appealed and has had eligibility for financial aid reinstated. To continue receiving financial aid, the student will need to satisfy both the academic plan as outlined in their appeal and the SAP criteria.

Student Services

Student Services at JWU provides professional support for students across various aspects of campus life, from academic support to meals and housing, health services, and student clubs and organizations. Click on a topic to view specific information.

Health Services

JWU maintains two Health Services (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?id=10320) offices where health care is provided to students — one for the Downcity Campus at Wales Hall and one for the Harborside Campus at the Wildcat Center.

JWU’s health services are available to commuting students as well as to residents.

Medical Records

Prior to the first term of enrollment, the university requires all new, full-time undergraduate students — residents and commuters alike — to submit proof of a complete physical exam conducted within the past year, including documented proof of two doses of the MMR (measles, mumps and rubella) vaccine (or titers if applicable), three doses of hepatitis B vaccine (or titers if applicable), three doses of tetanus-diphtheria vaccine (including at least one Tdap dose within the past 10 years), two doses of the chicken pox vaccine (or titers if applicable) or proof of physician-diagnosed disease, and one dose of meningitis vaccine (required for students residing in university residence halls). A waiver of the meningitis vaccine requirement is available for students 22 years of age and older (please contact Health Services for further information). In addition, a negative tuberculosis test or chest x-ray within the last year is required for entering students who are from highly endemic countries and have been residents of the United States for less than five years. A list of countries where tuberculosis is highly endemic is available upon request from Health Services.

The hepatitis A vaccine is strongly recommended but not required.

International Services

The main focus of International Student Services (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?id=49664) is to help international students adhere to Department of Homeland Security regulations, maintain their student status and access all the benefits permitted by their student visa status. A variety of other programs and services have also been created to assist students from the moment they enroll in the university until the day they graduate and beyond.

International Student Services offers orientation programs and cultural programming for international students and the university community. In addition, information sessions on employment, tax and other cultural adjustment issues are conducted every year.

Orientation

Johnson & Wales University’s orientation program is designed to help students become acquainted with the university. Students are introduced to many university administrators, faculty and staff who provide valuable information on academic studies, student life, university policies and financial services.

Policies

Computer and Technology Use Policy

All students are required to comply with the university’s Computer and Technology Use Policy (http://helpdesk.jwu.edu/policies.htm).

The university’s Computer and Technology Use Policy prohibits students from uploading, downloading, posting, publishing, transmitting, retaining, reproducing, sharing or distributing in any way information, software, movies, music, books, articles or any other material which is protected by copyright or other proprietary right, without obtaining permission of the owner.

Violation of this policy may result in the termination of a student’s access to the Internet via the university’s Internet system and student conduct review actions up to and including dismissal from the university.

In addition, students should be aware that unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material (e.g., songs, music and other materials), such as through peer-to-peer networks, may constitute copyright infringement. Penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or “statutory” damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For “willful” infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys’ fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505. Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense. For more information, please see the website of the U.S. Copyright Office (http://www.copyright.gov), especially their FAQs (http://www.copyright.gov/help/faq). Please refer to the Computer and Technology Use Policy for a further description of prohibited activities regarding use of university technology resources.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

In accordance with the Federal Drug-Free Workplace Act and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act, Johnson & Wales University prohibits the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of narcotics, drugs, other controlled substances or alcohol at the workplace and in the educational setting. Possession or use of alcoholic beverages anywhere on university premises is prohibited except for lawful use at events, operations or programs sanctioned by university officials (see the Student Code of Conduct (http://catalog.jwu.edu/handbook/studentaffairs/studentcodeofconduct)). Unlawful for these purposes means in violation of federal, state or local statutes, regulations or ordinances. Workplace is defined as either university premises or any place where university business is conducted away from university premises. Educational setting includes both university premises and approved educational sites off campus.

Possession or use of illegal drugs, narcotics or drug paraphernalia is absolutely forbidden. Johnson & Wales is not, and cannot be considered, a protector or sanctuary from the existing laws of the city, state and federal governments.

Sanctions

Disciplinary sanctions which may be imposed on a student found to be in violation of the above policy include, but are not limited to, reprimand, revocation of certain privileges, campus service, deferred suspension, fine or restitution for loss, suspension or dismissal from the university and/or university housing, and referral to alcohol education classes. The university also reserves the right to notify parents of violations.

Alcohol and Its Effects

Alcohol abuse is defined as any drinking that harms or endangers the drinker or other people. It can be a single episode or a regular pattern. Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Thought processes are slowed as alcohol numbs and destroys brain cells.

Symptoms of Drug Abuse

The key is change. It is important to watch for any significant changes in physical appearance, personality, attitude or behavior. Behavior signs include a change in overall personality or attitude with no other identifiable cause; a general lack of motivation, energy, or self-esteem; sudden oversensitivity, temper tantrums, or resentful behavior, moodiness, irritability or nervousness.

Possible Effects of Drug Abuse

Narcotics (opium, morphine, heroin) may cause euphoria, drowsiness, respiratory distress and nausea. Depressants (barbiturates) may cause slurred speech, disorientation and drunken behavior without the odor of alcohol. Stimulants (cocaine, amphetamines) may cause increased alertness, increased blood pressure and pulse, insomnia and loss of appetite. Hallucinogens (LSD, mescaline) may cause illusions, hallucinations and poor perception of time and distance. Cannabis (marijuana, hashish) may cause euphoria, relaxed inhibitions and disinhibited behavior.

JWU’s Substance Abuse Prevention Program

Several programming initiatives and alternatives are available to help students examine their own behavior related to alcohol and other drugs (AOD).

• Counseling Services provides an assessment of AOD usage for all students who seek counseling.

• Counseling Services provides AOD assessments for students who are specifically referred by Student Conduct.
• Referrals to community resources are available for individuals with more long-term or complex needs. A number of AA/NA/Al-Anon groups hold meetings close to campus and in the larger local community.

• Counseling Services offers AOD prevention through programming efforts with various student groups and Student Affairs departments.

• Counseling Services also collaborates with Student Conduct to provide educational and other resources for students with problematic drinking behavior and drug use.

• A number of programming initiatives take place each year as part of Alcohol Awareness Week activities, the campus Wellness Fair, as well as a variety of classroom and Residential Life programs.

• There is also an Alcohol Task Force to address alcohol abuse by students. This group has members from all segments of the university community.

State Penalties for Drug and Alcohol Offenses
Johnson & Wales University students are subject to state criminal prosecution and penalties for drug and alcohol offenses. These offenses include the following:

• Possession or delivery of marijuana, cocaine, heroin, LSD or PCP

• Possession of a needle and syringe

• Driving under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs

• Driving under the influence, death resulting

Criminal penalties for drug and alcohol offenses can include

• Mandatory drug or alcohol counseling

• Alcohol and/or drug treatment

• Driver retraining

• Suspension or loss of driver’s license

• Community service

• Fines ranging from $200 up to $1,000,000

• Imprisonment for various periods of time up to life imprisonment

Safety & Security
Campus Safety & Security (http://www.jwu.edu/providence/safety) is responsible for the enforcement of university policies, security on campus, and providing public safety service for the university’s students, faculty and staff. In addition, Emergency Management provides policy input, planning, exercises and guidance to improve response capabilities in the event of a campus or university emergency. Johnson & Wales University’s Providence Campus & Security is accredited by the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators Commission.

Incidents of an emergency nature should be reported to the Providence Police at 911, followed by contacting Campus Safety & Security at extension 1103 from a university phone or 401-598-1103 from a non-university phone. Campus Safety & Security issues timely alerts to the campus community, and when necessary, has the ability to issue these timely alerts via an emergency notification mass-messaging system.

Students are encouraged to take advantage of the services and programs listed on our website.

In compliance with the Higher Education Act, Johnson & Wales University publishes an Annual Security Report and an Annual Fire Safety Report. The Annual Security Report discloses information about campus security policies and statistics concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, on university-controlled property, and on public property immediately adjacent to campus. The Annual Fire Safety Report discloses information about the campus fire safety policies and procedures and fire statistics for each residence hall. A copy of the reports may be obtained from Campus Safety & Security in person or online (http://www.jwu.edu/providence/safety).

The university maintains a log of all fires that occur in on-campus housing, and a daily log of all reported crimes.

Students with Disabilities
JWU is dedicated to providing reasonable accommodations to allow students with learning, physical or other disabilities the opportunity to succeed in academic pursuits. While maintaining the highest academic integrity, the university strives to balance scholarship with support services which will assist students with disabilities in succeeding in the university’s academic environment.

Because some programs of study at the university have technical standards (p. 54) and requirements, applicants and students with disabilities should contact the director of the Center for Academic Support at 401-598-4689 to discuss the availability of reasonable accommodations or to obtain documentation guidelines, when appropriate.

Available reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities with appropriate documentation include, but are not limited to:

• Decelerated Course Load

• Preferential Scheduling

• Individualized Exams

• Note-taking Assistance

• Audio/Tape Recording in Class

• Voice Recognition Software

• Digital Texts

• Classroom Relocation

• Housing Accommodations

• Medically Excused Absences

• Reader or Scribe

• Assistive Technology

For further information regarding available reasonable accommodations and the accommodations procedure, please see the Academic Support (http://www.jwu.edu/content.aspx?id=278) section of the Providence Campus website or call the Center for Academic Support at 401-598-4689.

Information regarding the Accommodation of Food Allergies for Students in the College of Culinary Arts and The Hospitality College

Food allergies can be life-threatening. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, food allergies cause 30,000 cases of anaphylaxis, 2,000 hospitalizations, and 150 deaths annually.

Please note that the common food allergens (cow’s milk, egg, peanut, tree nuts, fish, shellfish, soybeans, and wheat, as well as less common food allergens) are used regularly in the university’s curriculum in the College of Culinary Arts and The Hospitality College.

The College of Culinary Arts and The Hospitality College have technical standards (http://catalog.jwu.edu/admissions/technicalstandards) that must be met for participation in their academic programs. All College of Culinary Arts programs and some Hospitality College programs include the requirement that the student, with or without reasonable accommodations, must be able to safely and effectively test and evaluate the taste, appearance, texture and aroma of food and beverage products and maneuver in professional or commercial kitchens, dining rooms and related facilities.

If you are an applicant with a food allergy who has been accepted for admission to JWU who intends to pursue studies in the College of Culinary Arts or The Hospitality College, we strongly urge you to call or visit the Center for Academic Support (401-598-4689) prior to attending your first class to discuss any reasonable accommodations that might be available to you during your academic studies. While the university will provide reasonable accommodations in compliance with applicable law, the university cannot guarantee it will be able to meet all requests for accommodations or remove all allergens from its curriculum.
