FINANCIAL AID (2017–18)

JWU is committed to making a quality education as accessible and affordable as possible. The university has taken proactive steps to manage student debt by increasing institutional aid over the past several years. Approximately 99 percent of Denver Campus students receive institutional scholarships and/or grants from the university, often making an education at JWU more affordable than other universities.

Pell grants were awarded to 47 percent of the undergraduate students enrolled at the Denver Campus.

EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION

JWU's educational approach is designed to help students identify a field of interest and acquire the knowledge, skills and experience to excel in that field. Our unique education model integrates academics and professional skills, related work experiences, community and leadership opportunities and career services. Students develop academic schedules and work experience plans relevant to their career goals, starting in their first term.

Our experiential education model includes career management workshops, a suite of career services, a customized online career management website, work experience tied to a field of study and on-campus recruitment opportunities.

JWU maintains relationships with hundreds of the world's industry-leading companies and offers a variety of work experience programs. In 2016–17, 348 Denver Campus students gained industry experience related to their major.

In 2016–17, 205 employer visits occurred on campus, allowing students to connect with leading companies in their field.

In 2016–17, 157 on-campus interviews were conducted.
