May 1, 2025

Dear Class of 2025,

Congratulations on your graduation day!

This is a significant occasion that you should be proud of, and I am honored to celebrate with you. I extend my heartfelt congratulations to every one of you.

As you celebrate this achievement, take a moment to reflect on all the people who have supported you along the way. Your family, friends, professors, coaches and mentors have provided you with encouragement, guidance and love. Make the time to thank them for their unwavering support.

As you embark on the next chapter of your life, be bold, take risks and pursue your passions with purpose and determination. Your education both inside and outside of the classroom at Johnson & Wales University has prepared you well for the future. You have learned the importance of leadership, teamwork and community service. You are well-prepared for the challenges that lie ahead, and I am confident that you are ready to make your mark on the world.

As you leave Johnson & Wales, I urge you to stay connected to our alumni network. As a member of the JWU family, you will always be a Wildcat, and we will always be here for you. Our alumni network is strong, and we have a proud history of supporting one another as we pursue our goals and dreams. I encourage you to stay in touch and to share your accomplishments with the JWU community.

Once again, congratulations on your graduation. You have made us all proud, and we cannot wait to see what you will achieve in the future.

Forever JWU,

President, Charlotte Campus

ABOUT JOHNSON & WALES UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1914, Johnson & Wales University is a private, nonprofit, accredited institution with more than 8,000 undergraduate and graduate students at its campuses in Providence, Rhode Island and Charlotte, North Carolina and through JWU Online. An innovative educational leader, the university offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs in arts and sciences, business and hospitality, dietetics and nutrition, food innovation and technology, and health and wellness. It also offers undergraduate programs in culinary arts and baking and pastry arts.

JWU's unique model provides students with the personalized attention, academic expertise and industry connections that inspire professional success and personal growth. The time students spend at JWU is nothing short of transformative, as demonstrated by career outcomes, expected earnings and economic mobility rankings. The university's impact is global, with alumni in 130 countries pursuing careers worldwide.

Here is what makes JWU different:

Academics: Our practical, relevant education provides industry with agile graduates who are real-world tested and ready to enter a highly dynamic workforce. Dedicated faculty and career advisors help students set professional goals and develop an educational plan designed for them to best attain those goals. Students learn by doing, discovering industry best practices and training on career-specific tools and software in dynamic labs and career-focused classrooms.

Experiential Education: Programs provide opportunities for real-world experience, which can include internships and classroom projects with industry partners. Specialized workshops help students build their résumés, highlight their skills and develop a portfolio of work to help set them apart. Students have the opportunity to network with employers who visit campus each year, including career fairs, on-campus interviews and career events geared toward their major. In 2023–24, 98.3% of JWU Charlotte students participated in some form of experiential education and applied learning.

Outcomes: JWU graduates have the transferable analytic and expressive abilities necessary to take on new challenges and navigate ever-changing career paths that increasingly define the contemporary workplace. Our career outcomes rate for graduates who earned a bachelor's degree has historically been higher than the national average.

Culture: JWU provides student experiences that encourage participation, embrace collaboration and stimulate a healthy mind, body and spirit. Both student organizations and athletics offer opportunities for personal growth, social connection and leadership development, ultimately leading to a sense of belonging and campus pride.

Value: Competitive and accelerated program options help qualified students save time and offer a step up in their fields of choice. When factoring in costs and discounts, the benefits of a JWU education and the time it takes to graduate, Johnson & Wales is more than competitive with other private universities — and with many public universities.

Student Speaker

SAVANNAH JO RILEY '25

Sports, Entertainment, Event — Management

As a first-generation college student from Kingsland, Georgia, Savannah Jo Riley entered JWU with determination and an unwavering focus on her goals. Today she celebrates completion of her bachelor's degree two years ahead of schedule. She aspires to obtain her MBA before turning 21. Balancing a vigorous course load as a full-time student, Riley is a beloved and active member of the JWU community while maintaining three jobs, including serving as a resident assistant. Her passion for hands-on learning led her to her standout role as a dispatch lead for Ridgewells Catering last summer at the U.S. Open Golf Tournament in Pinehurst, North Carolina.

Riley's family — her greatest pillar of resilience, love and support — has been instrumental in her journey. As the oldest of four children and the daughter of an active U.S. Navy serviceman, she has embraced discipline, adaptability and perseverance. With a drive to take on challenges with poise and purpose, she is eager to give back to the military community as she pursues her dream career: events director for the MWR (Morale, Welfare and Recreation) program.

Alumni Speaker

JOSHUA M. GILLIARD '20

Small & Business Banking Analyst

Wells Fargo

Joshua Gilliard's student experience at Johnson & Wales was transformative, laying a solid foundation for a career marked by leadership, innovation and a deep understanding of professional success in dynamic real-world settings. As a student in the College of Hospitality Management, he actively engaged in collaborative projects, notably the Tiefel Project, a high-tech, high-touch initiative in hospitality, and presented to professionals on both campuses.

After graduation, Gilliard secured a position as general manager at Moe's Southwest Grill, where he honed the skills necessary for his next role as manager at the Conway Restaurant Group. In this job, he oversaw 40 employees across four functional areas to ensure smooth operations. The experience inspired him take his career in a more business-oriented direction. In 2022, Gilliard became a private equity intern at Banbury Private Capital. From there, he secured a full-time position as a senior analyst at Bank of America, where he focused on financial planning and analysis, developing comprehensive financial reports to track market trends and minimize variances. He received his MBA from The University of North Carolina at Charlotte and began working in his current position in 2024.

Gilliard embraces a variety of personal interests that enrich his life, including a passion for cooking and experimenting with new recipes and techniques. A connoisseur of fine wines, he dedicates time to learn about wine pairings and appreciation. Outdoor activities such as hiking and biking bring him joy, as does reading, which allows him to explore new ideas and perspectives.

Commencement Speaker

CHIP WADE '83, '06 HON.

As chief executive officer of Union Square Hospitality Group (USHG), Chip Wade is responsible for further enhancing and evolving the company's culture, driving an even greater experience for guests, and bolstering the excellence and growth of its businesses. He joined the USHG executive team as president in 2019, following a rich 30-year career in operational leadership in the hospitality industry. In 2022, he was named chief executive officer.

Prior to joining USHG, Wade was the executive vice president of operations for Red Lobster and an officer of the company. As the senior leader of all operating functions, he was responsible for in-restaurant execution, P&Ls, and driving strategy to maximize the guest experience and EBITDA growth for 677 U.S. restaurants, located in 45 states, and 27 restaurants in Canada with average unit sales of $3.3M and $2.4B systemwide.

Previously, Wade was senior vice president of enterprise operations for Darden, the world's largest full-service restaurant operating company. Prior to that, he was senior vice president of Red Lobster's Liberty Division where he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of nearly 100 restaurants located in seven states and the District of Columbia. He initially joined Darden as the director of Revitalia for Olive Garden's existing restaurants. Revitalia was part of a systemwide repositioning of the brand.

Wade spent two years away from Darden when he served as chief operating officer for Legal Sea Foods Inc. in Boston, Massachusetts. In this role, he managed all operations for the family-owned group's 31 restaurants and oversaw the launch of the Legal Test Kitchen, a new concept. He also led as the senior vice president of development for Smokey Bones, a former Darden concept. Earlier in his career, he spent 13 years with T.G.I. Fridays where he progressed through various management positions in operations, human resources and new business development.

A Pennsylvania native, Wade received his culinary associate degree from Johnson & Wales, his B.S. degree from Widener University, and his MBA degree from The University of Texas at Dallas. He serves on the following boards: Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, Johnson & Wales University, and Share Our Strength, a national organization working to end childhood hunger and poverty in the United States. He is also a senior advisor for Junzi Kitchen, a Chinese fast-casual restaurant and concept based in New York.

The deans and faculty of the John Hazen White College of Arts & Sciences, the College of Business, the College of Engineering & Design, the College of Food Innovation & Technology, the College of Health & Wellness, the College of Hospitality Management and the College of Professional Studies proudly present their Classes of 2025.

Danielle Santamaria '13 MBA, CPA, vice president of finance

Diplomas will be awarded upon completion of all university requirements.

The commencement program listing contains the names of students meeting eligibility criteria and submitted for publication as of April 4, 2025. Names that are printed in the commencement program should not be used as an indicator of degree completion. Students must satisfy all graduation requirements before officially graduating and receiving a diploma.

University Honors Scholar status indicates one of the highest academic honors awarded by the university: successful student participation in the JWU Honors Program and completion of an Honors Thesis. Through this four-year program, academically advanced students receive an honors-caliber education that enriches the university curriculum and builds a diverse community of scholars.

To Attendees of this Event:

Johnson & Wales University has hired professional photographers/videographers to capture images of this graduation for use in educational and promotional materials. Attendance at this event constitutes each individual's consent to Johnson & Wales University to have their image and voice recorded and retransmitted for any and all purposes at the university's discretion. If you do not agree with the foregoing, please see a university special events staff member.

For the safety of everyone in attendance and to comply with local fire department regulations, guests are requested to remain in their seats during the program. Ushers are stationed at the foot of each aisle should you need assistance.

For your convenience, the commencement ceremony is being professionally photographed by Grad Images®.

The ceremony is also being streamed live at <https://commencement.jwu.edu/charlotte.html>.

Symbols of Commencement

UNIVERSITY SEAL

The university seal represents Johnson & Wales University's roots. The year at the top of the shield, 1914, is the year that the university was founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. The dragon of St. George on the upper portion of the crest honors the Wales family, while the lower portion of the crest bears the cross of St. John and honors the Johnson family.

MACE

The Johnson & Wales University mace symbolizes the ideals and values of JWU's educational philosophy. Cast of silver and bronze, it is engraved with the names of our chancellors, past and present. Our campus locations are engraved on the golden bands. On ceremonial occasions, university officials carry the mace to display the unity and continuity of Johnson & Wales University.

The mace dates to medieval times, when it was first used as a weapon. Forbidden to use swords, medieval European bishops were allowed to enter battle with a mace — typically an iron or steel club designed to split armor. By the 16th century, the mace had become a symbol of authority that colleges and universities began using ceremonially. That tradition continues today, and the mace is carried as part of formal academic occasions at colleges and universities across the globe.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess.

The academic dress worn by graduates at today's ceremony are 100% certified recycled polyester fabric that can be recycled and made into future gown products, helping to divert from landfills. Each recycled gown saves 29 plastic bottles from landfills, reduces carbon dioxide emissions by 1.5 pounds, and saves half a gallon of gasoline.

HOODS

Originating from the cowls of monastic orders, the hoods are the most distinctive part of the academic regalia. Their shape and size indicate the level of degree attained, and the colors reflect both the academic field as well as the institution that granted the degree.

The degrees most frequently represented in JWU academic processions are as follows:

DEGREE	COLOR
Bachelor of Arts	White
Bachelor/Master of Business Admin.	Drab
Bachelor/Master of Science	Gold
Master/Doctor of Education	Light Blue
Master of Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Master of Public Health	Salmon

CAPS

There is more variety in the shape and color of academic hats than in any other area. Master's and doctoral degree recipients wear the tassel on the left throughout the ceremony, and the doctoral soft-cap often features a gold tassel.

GOLD CORD HONORS

Eligible undergraduate degree candidates receive cum laude, magna cum laude and summa cum laude recognition according to their cumulative academic program average. Graduating students are eligible to receive Latin honors if their GPA is within the following range: cum laude, 3.50–3.69; magna cum laude, 3.70–3.89; summa cum laude, 3.90–4.00.

BLUE AND WHITE CORD

Eligible undergraduate degree candidates who have participated in co-curricular activities and maintain academic integrity as designated by university parameters are distinguished by a blue and white cord.
