Student Speaker

NICHOLAS R. PEZZA '19

Finance

Nicholas R. Pezza is a Special Honors and Rewards Program (SHARP) and Honors Program student graduating summa cum laude today. He moved away from his home at age 14, attending and living at New England boarding schools that helped him develop independence and comfort in new situations. He played junior hockey for two years before arriving at JWU and joining the men's NCAA ice hockey team for all four years, becoming the team's co-captain his junior and senior years. He also represented the hockey team on the JWU Student Athlete Advisory Council.

At JWU, Pezza received a solid foundation in finance, economics, accounting, management, and environmental studies. He also gained extensive experience in sales development, customer service, and developing corporate relationships. He worked as both the director of investment research and portfolio manager for the Wildcat Investment Value Fund, a student-run organization that manages the investment of a portion of JWU's endowment. He interned at Ticketmaster in Los Angeles on the Strategy and Analytics Team, contributing to projects for professional sports teams and high profile artists, and worked as a property manager with The 02908 Club in Providence, helping to maintain over 100 properties.

Alumni Speaker

JOSEPH J. GREENE JR. '89, '98 M.S., CPA

Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

Joseph Greene's modest beginnings have given him a genuine appreciation for higher education. After graduating from Providence's Central High School in 1980, Greene worked in two local factories before deciding to pursue a business school certificate. That led to him enrolling in the Community College of Rhode Island's business management/accounting associate degree program.

To support himself while paying for college, Greene was hired by JWU for a part-time position. He soon became employed full time, first as an accounts-receivable clerk, then as a loan officer and staff accountant as he pursued his bachelor's degree in accounting. Once he received his degree in 1989, he worked for a CPA firm in Providence, performing audit and tax work for different clients, including JWU, and passed the CPA exam.

In 1993, Greene returned to JWU as an accounting manager. Since then, he has earned a JWU master's degree in accounting and risen through the ranks as university controller, vice president for accounting services, assistant treasurer and vice president for finance. Today, he is treasurer and chief financial officer, responsible for finance at all four JWU campuses, which employ more than 2,200 faculty and staff.

Honorary Degree Recipient

NIGEL TRAVIS

Doctor of Business Administration

Nigel Travis is the chairman of Dunkin' Brands Inc., serving as chief executive officer from January 2009 to July 2018.

In Travis' time as CEO, Dunkin' Brands completed a successful IPO in 2011 and returned nearly $2.7 billion to shareholders since going public. Dunkin' entered 25 new international markets in the past decade and grew its unit count by nearly 6,000 stores globally, including more than 2,800 net new restaurants in the U.S. Travis also directed the launch of Dunkin'-branded consumer packaged goods, like Dunkin' K-Cups and Ready-to-Drink Bottled Iced Coffees.

Additionally, Dunkin' introduced mobile payment apps at Dunkin' Donuts and Baskin-Robbins during his tenure, brought the DD Perks Loyalty Program to market, and launched Dunkin' Donuts On-the-Go Mobile Ordering, as well as delivery programs for both brands in markets around the globe.

Prior to joining Dunkin', Travis was president and CEO of Papa John's Pizza from 2005 to 2008. During that time, Papa John's online sales tripled, international business grew, and several new products were successfully introduced, including Papa's Pan Pizza. Travis was with Blockbuster Inc. from 1994 to 2004, where he served in increasing roles of responsibility, including president and chief operating officer, growing global sales by over 50 percent to encompass 26 countries with revenues of $1.8 billion.

Travis also held upper management positions at Burger King, first as senior vice president of human resources and later as managing director for Europe, the Middle East and Africa. As managing director, he turned around the region, significantly increasing sales and operating profits. He dramatically increased the rate of store development in the area, and successfully drove expansion into new countries and alternative points of distribution.

Travis received a bachelor's degree in business studies from Middlesex University in England. He previously served as lead director on the board of directors for Office Depot, where he currently serves as a board member, and also serves as a board member for Advance Auto Parts Inc. He is the author of "The Challenge Culture: Why the Most Successful Organizations Run on Pushback," published by PublicAffairs/Hachette Book Group in September 2018.

A lifelong fan of the Leyton Orient Football Club, Travis serves as the club's chairman and led a business consortium to take ownership of the storied English football club in June 2017. Under his leadership, the club has spent much of the 2018–19 season at the top of the National League.

Deans Angela Renaud, Ed.D.; Louis A. D'Abrosca, Ed.D.; Frank X. Tweedie '98 M.S.; Paul McVety '09 Ed.D.; Cynthia L. After the ceremony, guests may join the graduates outside under the marquee of the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Symbols of Commencement

UNIVERSITY SEAL

The university seal represents Johnson & Wales University's roots. The year at the top of the shield, 1914, is the year that the university was founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. The dragon of St. George on the upper portion of the crest honors the Wales family, while the lower portion of the crest bears the cross of St. John and honors the Johnson family.

MACE

The Johnson & Wales University mace symbolizes the ideals and values of JWU's educational philosophy. Cast of silver and bronze, it is engraved with the names of our chancellors, past and present. Our campus locations are engraved on the golden bands. On ceremonial occasions, university officials carry the mace to display the unity and continuity of Johnson & Wales University.

The mace dates to medieval times, when it was first used as a weapon. Forbidden to use swords, medieval European bishops were allowed to enter battle with a mace — typically an iron or steel club designed to split armor. By the 16th century, the mace had become a symbol of authority that colleges and universities began using ceremonially. That tradition continues today, and the mace is carried as part of formal academic occasions like these at colleges and universities across the globe.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess.

HOODS

Originating from the cowls of monastic orders, the hoods are the most distinctive part of the academic regalia. Their shape and size indicate the level of degree attained, and the colors reflect both the academic field as well as the institution that granted the degree.

The fields of study most frequently represented in academic processions are the following:

FIELD OF STUDY	COLOR
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business, Commerce	Nugget
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Law	Purple
Physician Assistant Studies	Green
Social Work	Citron

CAPS

There is more variety in the shape and color of academic hats than in any other area. Master's and doctoral degree recipients wear the tassel on the left throughout the ceremony, and the doctoral soft-cap often features a gold tassel.
