DIANE SARACENI '19

Baking & Pastry Arts

A JWU Continuing Education student graduating magna cum laude today, Diane Saraceni works full-time as an audit operations coordinator in Boston at Northeastern University where she is also pursuing a degree in Management from the College of Professional Studies with the first minor in Graphic Communication and the second minor in Creative Writing. She plans to put her JWU degree to good use, opening a chocolate and candy business with her husband.

Prior to joining Northeastern in 2017, Saraceni was with GE Company as an operations manager for two years. From 2001 to 2015, she was with GE Capital Corporation in the roles of documentation/funding specialist, senior documentation/funding specialist, operations compliance auditor, records and information management specialist, and records and information management lead.

Saraceni serves as president of a nonprofit animal shelter that is raising funds to build a physical regional shelter and currently assist local residents with their veterinary bills when needed. Her hobbies include entering baking contests at fairs (she has a 98% placement rate), traveling, photography, reading, skiing, hiking and kayaking. Her daughter is graduating from Drexel University this year with a biomedical engineering degree.

Alumni Speaker

JOSEPH J. GREENE JR. '89, '98 M.S., CPA

Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

Joseph Greene's modest beginnings have given him a genuine appreciation for higher education. After graduating from Providence's Central High School in 1980, Greene worked in two local factories before deciding to pursue a business school certificate. That led to him enrolling in the Community College of Rhode Island's business management/accounting associate degree program.

To support himself while paying for college, Greene was hired by JWU for a part-time position. He soon became employed full time, first as an accounts-receivable clerk, then as a loan officer and staff accountant as he pursued his bachelor's degree in accounting. Once he received his degree in 1989, he worked for a CPA firm in Providence, performing audit and tax work for different clients, including JWU, and passed the CPA exam.

In 1993, Greene returned to JWU as an accounting manager. Since then, he has earned a JWU master's degree in accounting and risen through the ranks as university controller, vice president for accounting services, assistant treasurer and vice president for finance. Today, he is treasurer and chief financial officer, responsible for finance at all four JWU campuses, which employ more than 2,200 faculty and staff.

Honorary Degree Recipient

DEREK JOSEPH WAGNER '99

Doctor of Culinary Arts

Derek Joseph Wagner '99 opened nicks on broadway at age 24 with the goal of providing seasonally-inspired, locally-supported, soulfully-driven food with sincere service and integrity. His ever-evolving, grassroots startup sprang from its modest 18-seat beginnings in 2002, to its current 55-seat, acclaimed version at 500 Broadway in Providence. With his attention to detail, passionate cooking and uncompromising standards, Wagner focuses on bringing the highest level of cooking and attentive service to his customers in the most heartfelt, upbeat and welcoming atmosphere possible.

Staying connected to the community is paramount to Wagner and the philosophy that has come to shape nicks on broadway. He continually develops and fosters relationships with local growers, producers, farmers, fishermen and artisans. Whatever he cannot produce or grow in the herb and vegetable gardens at nicks, or from the fruit trees he planted in his nearby yard, he sources carefully, thoughtfully and locally whenever possible.

Wagner's passion for food, community and collaboration have led him to join Chefs Collaborative. Chefs Collaborative is the nation's leading network of conscientious chefs, cooks and food professionals that care deeply about sourcing, cooking and serving delicious food responsibly. Wagner currently sits as the co-chair, connecting with chefs nationwide to raise awareness and make positive impacts on our food system.

A four-time James Beard nominee, Wagner was awarded the StarChefs Rising Star of Sustainability and has been featured on TV's Food Network and BBC America. He has been written about in Food & Wine, Esquire, GQ, Playboy, Travel & Leisure, Clean Eating Magazine, The New York Times and The New York Times Cookbook, The Boston Globe, and The Independent, to name a few. Wagner has contributed to VICE News and several cooking and restaurant books, while nicks on broadway has been named "One of the World's Best Restaurants" by Fodor's International Travel Guide.

A 1999 JWU alumnus, Wagner returned to campus in 2012 as a Distinguished Visiting Chef and shared his knowledge with students. Later this month, Wagner will open his second restaurant, nicks on westminster, continuing his mission of sourcing sustainably and seasonally.

Honorary Degree Recipient

MEHMET GÜRS '93

Doctor of Culinary Arts

Mehmet Gürs '93 is chef and partner of over 20 successful restaurants and cafés, including the unique Mikla, which has made The World's 50 Best Restaurants list consistently since 2015. His company, the Istanbul Food & Beverage Group, continues to be at the forefront of the culinary world in Turkey.

Credited with launching the contemporary restaurant scene in Istanbul when he opened his first restaurant in 1996, Gürs is perhaps best known for his recent introduction of the New Anatolian Kitchen movement. This visionary approach allows the rich food cultures from the past to survive and evolve as farmers and chefs collaborate. Treated with the utmost respect, traditional natural products are transformed through a blend of new and ancient techniques. Years of extensive research, a dedicated creative process, and a team of chefs, villagers, mothers, grandfathers and a full-time anthropologist have resulted in an extensive network and a deep knowledge of the conventional habits, products and techniques of the area.

Gürs also runs the casual restaurant chain numnum café & restaurant; the casual Italian eatery Trattoria Enzo; the innovative, fresh, casual self-service restaurant Terra Kitchen; and the groundbreaking Kronotrop Coffee Bar & Roastery. Kronotrop is considered the leader in the specialty coffee movement in Turkey. Its roasters and baristas have represented Turkey at the World Coffee Championships for the past two years. Buzzfeed listed Kronotrop as one of the 25 coffee shops in the world to “see before you die.”

Gürs has received international praise in such publications as The New York Times, Travel & Leisure, Conde Nast Traveler's “Hot Tables” and Food & Wine, which called Gürs Istanbul's most recognizable chef. A sought-after keynote speaker at major international culinary events and conferences, he is also one of the creators of the YEDİ Food Conference in Istanbul. YEDİ is an international food conference aimed to bring together chefs, producers, scientists and opinion leaders around powerful discussions on food and beyond.

A 1993 JWU alumnus, Gürs says, “I don't feel like I'm tied to any nationality, but everywhere I've been has affected me. The food culture of a country, too, is affected by everyone who passes through it. Turkey, for example, has always been a crossroads, between the North and South, East and West. That's what makes any kitchen so rich — the people.”

Deans Susan D. Marshall, Ed.D.; Paul McVety '09 Ed.D.; Cynthia L. Parker, Ed.D., and the faculty of the College of Culinary Arts, College of Hospitality Management and College of Online Education proudly present their Classes of 2019.

Students must satisfy all graduation requirements before officially graduating and receiving a diploma.

For the safety of everyone in attendance and to comply with local fire department regulations, guests are requested to remain in their seats during the program. Ushers are stationed at the foot of each aisle should you need assistance.

After the ceremony, guests may join the graduates outside under the marquee of the Dunkin' Donuts Center. UNIVERSITY SEAL

The university seal represents Johnson & Wales University's roots. The year at the top of the shield, 1914, is the year that the university was founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. The dragon of St. George on the upper portion of the crest honors the Wales family, while the lower portion of the crest bears the cross of St. John and honors the Johnson family.

MACE

The Johnson & Wales University mace symbolizes the ideals and values of JWU's educational philosophy. Cast of silver and bronze, it is engraved with the names of our chancellors, past and present. Our campus locations are engraved on the golden bands. On ceremonial occasions, university officials carry the mace to display the unity and continuity of Johnson & Wales University.

The mace dates to medieval times, when it was first used as a weapon. Forbidden to use swords, medieval European bishops were allowed to enter battle with a mace — typically an iron or steel club designed to split armor. By the 16th century, the mace had become a symbol of authority that colleges and universities began using ceremonially. That tradition continues today, and the mace is carried as part of formal academic occasions like these at colleges and universities across the globe.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess.

HOODS

Originating from the cowls of monastic orders, the hoods are the most distinctive part of the academic regalia. Their shape and size indicate the level of degree attained, and the colors reflect both the academic field as well as the institution that granted the degree.

The fields of study most frequently represented in academic processions are the following:

FIELD OF STUDY	COLOR
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business, Commerce	Nugget
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Law	Purple
Physician Assistant Studies	Green
Social Work	Citron

CAPS

There is more variety in the shape and color of academic hats than in any other area. Master's and doctoral degree recipients wear the tassel on the left throughout the ceremony, and the doctoral soft-cap often features a gold tassel.
