ALAIN DUCASSE

Doctor of Culinary Arts

Alain Ducasse, one of the world’s most decorated chefs, is known for his incomparable cuisine and has created innovative dining concepts that reflect international influences.

The world’s first six-Michelin-star chef, Ducasse is president and co-founder of Alain Ducasse Enterprise, overseeing a culinary establishment that includes education and 24 restaurants spanning eight countries.

Born and raised on a farm in the southwest region of France, Ducasse began his career at age 16, apprenticing for such famous chefs as Michel Guérard and Roger Vergé at his Moulin de Mougins, where Ducasse discovered the flavors of Provençal cooking that later became essential in his own kitchens.

In 1987 Ducasse became Chef des Cuisine managing Le Louis XV Restaurant at Hôtel de Paris in Monaco. In 1990, under his leadership, Le Louis XV Restaurant became the first hotel restaurant to be awarded three stars in the Michelin Red Guide. In 1996, he opened restaurant Alain Ducasse in Paris, which won him another three stars.

Over the years Ducasse opened several more restaurants including Alain Ducasse au Plaza Athénée, Aux Lyonnais, and Rech in Paris; Benoit in Tokyo and New York City; MiX in St. Petersburg, Russia and Las Vegas; Le Louis XV-Alain Ducasse in Monaco; Spoon in Hong Kong; Alain Ducasse at The Dorchester in London; and La Trattoria in Monaco, among others.

In 2009 Ducasse embarked on a new enterprise, founding L’Ecole Nationale Supérieure de la Pâtisserie (ENSP), France’s leading pastry arts school, located in Yssingeaux, France. He also founded and runs 15 Femmes en Avenir, a program that provides culinary arts training to low-income women.

During his notable career Ducasse was awarded the Chevalier de la Legion d’Honneur from former President Jacques Chirac as well as the Ordre National du Mérite Agricole. He also serves as president of the hotel association Châteaux & Hôtels Collection and co-president of the College Culinaire de France.

Though no longer in the kitchen, Ducasse is still the driving inspiration for his restaurants — managing the talent, and providing recipes, atmosphere and interior design. “It is the executive chef who is responsible for making it perfect every day,” says Ducasse, who surrounds himself with the best chefs, dining room staff and sommeliers.

Ducasse resides in Paris with his wife and children.

BRIAN J. FOYE ‘85, ‘88 MBA

Doctor of Business Administration in Restaurant, Food & Beverage Management

Brian J. Foye, president of Seasons 52, a Darden Restaurants brand, has combined his love of and expertise in hospitality and culinary arts for a successful career in the food service industry and as an entrepreneur.

Before joining Seasons 52, Foye was senior vice president of operations for The Capital Grille, another Darden brand, and vice president of operations for The Capital Grille under Rare Hospitality International. During this time Foye grew The Capital Grille from six restaurants to a national brand comprising 48 restaurants.

Under Foye’s leadership The Capital Grille was recognized with several national awards, including OpenTable’s 2010 Diners’ Choice Award for Best American Cuisine, for which 10 Capital Grille locations were included; Wine Spectator’s Award of Excellence; an American Culinary Federation Achievement of Excellence Award; and DiRoNA’s Distinguished Restaurants of North America, among others.

As a culinary entrepreneur, Foye founded a multifaceted food service business in Boston, Mass., The Educated Palate, which he operated for eight years before joining Darden.

Foye’s skill and dedication have been recognized with several awards and honors, including induction into the National Commission for Cooperative Education’s Co-op Hall of Fame, the Taste of Canada-International Culinary Olympics Gold and Silver awards, and a JWU Distinguished Alumni Award.

His commitment to serving others reaches beyond his career and into the community. Foye has donated both time and funds to Share Our Strength in Washington, D.C., raising more than $1 million over the past five years through his work with The Capital Grille. He is a member of Harvard University’s Dining Services Advisory Council in Cambridge, Mass., serves on the board of directors for the YMCA in Winter Park, Fla., and is a contributor and rider for the Pan Mass Challenge for the Dana Farber Cancer Institute in Boston, Mass.

Foye, who holds an associate degree in culinary arts, a bachelor’s degree in food service management and an MBA in hospitality management from Johnson & Wales University, lives in Winter Park, Fla., with his wife, Coleen. The couple has two children, Rebecca and Brandon.

Deans Paul McVety, Ed.D., Michael Petrillose, Ph.D., Angela Renaud, Ed.D., and the faculty of the College of Culinary Arts, The Hospitality College, and the John Hazen White School of Arts & Sciences proudly present their Classes of 2013.

Diplomas will be awarded upon completion of all university requirements.

The appearance of a student’s name in this program does not necessarily indicate that all graduation requirements have been met. Graduate names are based on records posted on the university’s Student Academic Services website, with spellings verified by students and submitted for publication as of April 18, 2013.
Alpha Beta Kappa designations were determined as of April 18, 2013.

For the safety of everyone in attendance and to comply with local fire department regulations, guests are requested to remain in their seats during the program.
Guests will not be allowed onto the arena floor or in the exhibition area where graduates enter and exit the arena.
Ushers are stationed at the foot of each aisle should you need assistance.

After the ceremony, guests may join the graduates in either the front lobby or the front entrance area outside the Dunkin’ Donuts Center.
Once the academic recessional has ended, graduates and guests may return to the arena to use the stage as a backdrop for photographs.

For your convenience, today’s commencement ceremony is being professionally photographed (and videotaped) by Grad Images®.
For information on ordering photos (or a DVD of the ceremony), please contact Grad Images® at 800-261-2576 or online at www.gradimages.com.
Grad Images® has agreed to provide a free 5x7 of the graduate’s choice to each graduate that provides his/her email and mailing address to Grad Images®.

Symbols of Commencement

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies. Bachelor's degree recipients wear academic hoods representing their higher level of education. The hood worn at JWU is black with blue, white and golden-yellow trim to signify the school colors.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess. The honorary degree recipients will wear the academic costume and hood appropriate for the degree being conferred upon them.

CULINARY MEDALLIONS

All Culinary, Baking & Pastry and Food Service Management bachelor degree graduates are presented with medallions symbolizing culinary excellence, leadership and the discipline of learning.

HONORS GOLD STOLE

Students graduating from the university's Honors Program have completed an enhanced undergraduate curriculum and have maintained at least a 3.40 cumulative GPA. They wear an embroidered gold stole to recognize their exemplary academic achievement.

GOLD CORD

Students graduating cum laude or above, as of Winter Term 2013, are designated by gold cords.

BLUE & WHITE CORD

Students who have participated in co-curricular activities designated by university parameters are distinguished by a blue and white cord.
