COMMENCEMENT

Class of 2014

ALAN SHAWN FEINSTEIN GRADUATE SCHOOL

Providence, Rhode Island
May 22, 2014

CELEBRATING A CENTURY OF INNOVATION 1914 – 2014

In celebration of Johnson & Wales University's Centennial in 2014, we commemorate its abiding stature as an innovative education leader. What began as a small secretarial school founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales is now a globally recognized university attracting students from 90 countries.

Johnson & Wales has pioneered a model of experiential learning increasingly emulated in higher education.

By integrating an industry-focused curriculum and the rigor of liberal arts with real-world experience and community involvement, JWU's approach inspires both professional success and lifelong personal growth.

As we move into our second century, we are making an unprecedented investment in Johnson & Wales' future, strengthening the university's status as a leader recognized for its highly effective 21st-century model of higher education.

VILMA G. TRIANGOLO '36, '88 HON.
May 10, 1917–January 6, 2014

The 2014 Commencement ceremonies at the four Johnson & Wales University campuses are dedicated to the memory of Vilma G. Triangolo '36, '88 Hon., wife of Johnson & Wales' first president and co-director, Edward P. Triangolo Sr.

A link to the university's past and its two pioneering founders, Mrs. Triangolo was one of the school's most fervent supporters having been a student, staff member, teacher, co-owner and honorary trustee. Mrs. Triangolo enriched the lives of many in the university family through her generous spirit, love of education and devotion to our students. The quintessential champion of JWU, she will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Dear Graduates of the Class of 2014,

I am thrilled to join in tonight's celebration of your graduation from Johnson & Wales University. That you will forever be known as our centennial graduating class is an honor that you will carry for a lifetime.

You came to Johnson & Wales University to advance your education, seeking a path to professional success and personal fulfillment. That path has taken you from the expertise and dedication of exceptional faculty members to a rich array of outside the classroom experiences. Along the way, you have developed a strong academic foundation, marketable work experience, and valuable leadership skills. You are ready to transition to the next, exciting phase of your life's journey.

Part of that transition includes a new but continuing relationship with JWU. You join the company of 90,000 individuals who for a century have come to JWU motivated to enrich their personal lives and prepare themselves for professional success. It is my hope that you stay engaged with the university and with fellow alumni as we strive to give thousands more like you the opportunity to experience our unique brand of education.

I thank you for the contributions you have made to the Johnson & Wales University family. You truly have made a difference and as you go forward, I have every confidence that you are ready for success in your chosen pursuit. My personal pride in what you've done for JWU is shared by the entire university community.

You have our gratitude and our best wishes for what lies ahead.

Sincerely,

RECESSIONAL

Honorary Degree Recipient

ABID M.H. BUTT ’84

Doctor of Business Administration in International Hotel & Tourism Management

Since returning to Banyan Tree Hotels & Resorts in April 2012, as chief executive officer, Abid Butt has led the luxury hospitality group as a visionary with a steady hand.

Instrumental in the launch of multiple brands including Sheraton’s Four Points and Banyan Tree’s Angsana Hotels & Resorts, Butt has also overseen multiple hotel openings, renovations and repositioning projects throughout his career.

Prior to his current role, he was the vice president for Asset Management of Host Hotels & Resorts in the United States, where he oversaw the preservation and asset enhancement of a collection of hotels. He has also been affiliated with Sheraton Corporation and Benchmark Hospitality International during his hospitality career.

Butt initially joined Banyan Tree Hotels & Resorts as area general manager for the Group’s flagship resort, Banyan Tree Phuket, followed by his appointment as the first vice president of operations. In this capacity, he oversaw operations and branding for existing hotels and resorts and the launch of new properties.

An engaged professional dedicated to making a difference, Butt lends his expertise and management skills to a number of organizations including the Urban Land Institute where he is a development council steering committee member and an advisory board member of STREETS International, an innovative social enterprise initiative with a mission to develop and operate sustainable programs for street kids and disadvantaged youth in Southeast Asia and throughout the world.

Butt holds a Master of Science degree in Real Estate from Johns Hopkins University and an MBA from the University of Phoenix. His hospitality industry education was completed at Johnson & Wales University with double Bachelor of Science degrees in Food Service Management and Hotel, Restaurant & Institutional Management.

Butt and his wife, Jane, reside in Singapore and have a son, Rehan.

Diplomas will be awarded upon completion of all university requirements.

The appearance of a student's name in this program does not necessarily indicate that all graduation requirements have been met. Graduate names are based on records posted on the university's Student Academic Services website, with spellings verified by students and submitted for publication as of April 18, 2014.

For the safety of everyone in attendance and to comply with local fire department regulations, guests are requested to remain in their seats during the program.
Ushers are stationed at the foot of each aisle should you need assistance.

After the ceremony, guests may join the graduates outside under the marquee of the Providence Performing Arts Center.
Once the academic recessional has ended, graduates and guests may return to the arena to use the stage as a backdrop for photographs.

For your convenience, tonight's commencement ceremony is being professionally photographed (and videotaped) by Grad Images®.
For information on ordering photos (or a DVD of the ceremony), please contact Grad Images® at 800-261-2576 or online at www.gradimages.com.
Grad Images® has agreed to provide a free 5x7 of the graduate's choice to each graduate that provides his/her email and mailing address to Grad Images®.
