SAMANTHA RILEY '17

Baking & Pastry Arts and Food Service Management

Samantha Riley has shown that future leaders start at JWU. During her time at Johnson & Wales, she has been co-president of the National Student Organizations' Community Action Association, president of Eta Sigma Delta Hospitality Honor Society, and president of Sans Gluten. Winner of the 2015 and 2016 DECA Leadership Awards, she was a selected participant for College Leadership Rhode Island and a panelist for the marketing and technology panel at IMPACT, a national service conference. She also presented at the Rhode Island and Connecticut Campus Compact Leadership Conference about social media marketing strategies.

Riley was the culinary and lifestyle section editor for the Campus Herald and wrote for the JWU Admissions Marketing blog. She completed her sophomore internship at the Ecole Nationale Supérieure de Pâtisserie in Yssingaux, France, and partook in an exchange program with the Galway-Mayo Institute of Technology in Galway, Ireland, during her junior year.

During summer breaks, she worked as a baker at the Silver Lake Conference Center in Sharon, Connecticut, and was head pastry chef at the Smith Fork Ranch in Crawford, Colorado, and The Hideout Lodge and Guest Ranch in Greybull, Wyoming.

The proudest moment of her university career was being part of the inaugural Alternative Spring Break trip, which has now become a university signature event. She is graduating today magna cum laude.

Alumni Speaker

MARIE BERNARDO-SOUSA, L.P.D., '92

Senior Vice President of Administration

Johnson & Wales University

Marie Bernardo-Sousa has been invested in Johnson & Wales University since she arrived as a student in 1988 and joined the Registrar's Office. After five years she moved to Admissions and became director of special events. In 1999, she was promoted again to have oversight of admissions for the College of Business, The Hospitality College and the School of Technology. Prior to assuming her current position in 2014, she served as senior vice president of student services, vice president of student services, university registrar, and executive director of student academic & financial services.

In her current role, Bernardo-Sousa leads the areas of Student Academic & Financial Services, Student Affairs, Athletics, JWU Global, Auxiliary Services, Institutional Research and Enrollment Management. With a keen commitment to the student experience, she has a long history of fostering collaboration among departments and across campuses, including leading the student services teams through the conversion to a new student record management system and launch of the student communications portal, jwuLink. She is also responsible for managing staff through ongoing change initiatives to ensure students receive exceptional customer service.

Honorary Degree Recipient

GARY R. COMELLA '76

Doctor of Culinary Arts

Gary Comella is a highly respected executive chef with an inherent connection to food from three generations of a family business. Comella's Italian grandfather sold produce, and his dad and uncle owned a successful Providence diner in which he started working at age 12.

In 1974 Comella enrolled at Johnson & Wales during the second year of its culinary arts program. An internship in New York City creating recipes for a public relations firm and the opportunity to dine at the Four Seasons Restaurant solidified his passion for the field. He graduated summa cum laude and second in his class.

After graduation, Comella began working at the four-star Ritz Carlton Hotel in Boston, where he gained an enormous appreciation of cuisines and culture working under the tutelage of Jean-Yves Loizance. Worldwide success followed through stints at Lowe's Monte Carlo in Monaco, Mauna Lani Bay in Hawaii, L'Ermitage's Bel Age Hotel in Hollywood, and The St. James' Club & Hotel in Los Angeles. He maintained the four-star diamond award at both the Bel Age Hotel and The St. James'.

Twenty years after stepping foot in his first culinary class, Comella returned to Providence as executive chef of The University Club, a position he still holds today. His accolades include letters from heads of state, a multitude of celebrities and charitable organizations for which he volunteers. Comella is a member of Chaîne des Rôtisseurs USA, the Rhode Island Chapter of the American Culinary Association, and the American Kidney Foundation. He has volunteered with Resilient Kids and the American Heart Association, and has been featured in a variety of cooking magazines and publications. He attends the International Chefs Congress in New York City annually with chefs from around the country and world to experience new trends and cooking styles.

During his time on the west coast, the California Restaurant Association nominated Comella twice as the Los Angeles Chef of the Year. He was recognized as one of Southern California's top chefs and has won numerous awards for excellence in dining, including the John Mariani Best New Restaurant Award. In 2014 he received the Chancellor's Medal from Johnson & Wales University, the Citizen Citation from the City of Providence, and a citation for 20 years of service at The University Club from Governor Lincoln Chaffee.

Comella enjoys collecting cookbooks, traveling, music and movies. He and his wife, Elyse Kaprielian, reside in Providence and have two college-age children, Alek and Ani.

Honorary Degree Recipient

CHARLES M. ROYCE

Doctor of Business Administration

Charles M. Royce is chairman and a portfolio manager for Royce & Associates LP, investment adviser to The Royce Funds, a small-cap equity specialist offering portfolios with distinctive investment approaches to address specific investment goals. The firm has been managing micro-cap, small-cap and small/mid-cap portfolios for more than 40 years. Royce serves as lead portfolio manager for Royce Pennsylvania Mutual, Premier, Total Return Fund and Royce Dividend Value Funds. He serves as portfolio manager for Royce Global Financial Services Fund, as well as the firm's three closed-end portfolios: Royce Value Trust, Royce Micro-Cap Trust, and Royce Global Value Trust. He has 54 years of investment experience, with 44 years as a smaller-company value portfolio manager.

Prior to 1972, Royce served as the director of research at Scheinman, Hochstin, Trotta and as a security analyst at Blair & Co. Royce holds a bachelor's degree from Brown University and a Master of Business Administration from Columbia University.

A seasonal resident of the Watch Hill section of Westerly for more than 30 years, Royce is the financial backer and visionary behind the restoration of Ocean House, Watch Hill's AAA Five Diamond and Forbes Five-Star seaside resort hotel. He led the effort in 2005 to buy the derelict property from a developer who was planning to demolish the inn and subdivide its 11 acres into five separate lots. Through a monumental investment, Ocean House underwent a three-year demolition and historic reconstruction of its iconic, Gilded Age building.

Royce owns several properties in Westerly, including two other inns that he renovated and restored. He has made many generous contributions over the years in support of local charitable organizations, including Westerly WARM Center, Westerly Hospital, Ocean Community YMCA, the Babcock-Smith House, Shakespeare in the Park, and the Bring Back the Beach grant fund for Misquamicut. This past year, Royce magnanimously donated to fund an education and job training center to serve as a training site for Electric Boat, which is facing a shortage of skilled laborers for its Groton and Quonset Point facilities. To honor his dedication to the town of Westerly, the Ocean Community Chamber of Commerce named him its 2016 Citizen of the Year.

Deans Peter Lehmuller, Ed.D.; Paul McVety '09 Ed.D.; Cynthia L. Parker, Ed.D., and the faculty of the College of Culinary Arts and the School of Hospitality proudly present their Classes of 2017.

Congratulations to Ray J. McCue, College of Culinary Arts Faculty Member of the Year and Paul Bagdan, Ph.D., School of Hospitality Faculty Member of the Year.

Symbols of Commencement

UNIVERSITY SEAL

The university seal represents Johnson & Wales University's roots. The year at the top of the shield, 1914, is the year that the university was founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. The dragon of St. George on the upper portion of the crest honors the Wales family, while the lower portion of the crest bears the cross of St. John and honors the Johnson family.

MACE

The Johnson & Wales University mace symbolizes the ideals and values of JWU's educational philosophy. Cast of silver and bronze, it is engraved with the names of our founders and presidents, past and present. Our campus locations are engraved on the golden bands. On ceremonial occasions, university officials carry the mace to display the unity and continuity of Johnson & Wales University.

The mace dates to medieval times, when it was first used as a weapon. Forbidden to use swords, medieval European bishops were allowed to enter battle with a mace — typically an iron or steel club designed to split armor. By the 16th century, the mace had become a symbol of authority that colleges and universities began using ceremonially. That tradition continues today, and the mace is carried as part of formal academic occasions like these at colleges and universities across the globe.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess.

HOODS

Originating from the cowls of monastic orders, the hoods are the most dramatic part of the academic regalia. Their shape and size indicate the level of degree attained, and the colors reflect both the academic field as well as the institution that granted the degree.

The fields of study most frequently represented in academic processions are the following:

FIELD OF STUDY	COLOR
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business, Commerce	Nugget
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Law	Purple
Physician Assistant Studies	Green
Social Work	Citron

CAPS

There is more variety in the shape and color of academic hats than in any other area. Master's and doctoral degree recipients wear the tassel on the left throughout the ceremony, and the doctoral soft-cap often features a gold tassel.
